are going to Kansas City, Topeka and Emporia, Kansas in the course of a month's vacation.

Eighty-five children received certificates for attendance and good work in Vacation Bible school Friday night at the Urban League at the school's closing exercises. Special certificates in recognition of special work were given to Barbara Moody for having taught music, Phyllis Bradford for having acted as narrator in the playlet by children from the four departments of the school and to Phil Anderson.

Mrs. Dorothy Lewis was recreation director, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Sarah Walker, room supervisors of kindergarden, Mrs. William Greene, Mrs. Amentha Handy, Mrs. Sarah Simms and Mrs. Frank Williams supervised the primary group. Mrs. Odessa Patrick and Mrs. Helen Bradford taught the juniors. Mrs. Lewis, assisted by Mrs. Emma White and Kathryn King taught the intermediates. Mrs. Sarah Walker also helped handcraft director Fletcher Bell.

Each child made a scrap book during the school on the theme "God's World." Other activities included the making of raffia pictures and frames, oil paintings, modeling and molding and blue printing was done by the intermediate group. Kindergartners and primaries made book marks, baskets and chains. The three award winners also wrote the best themes on "Why I Like Vacation Bible School."

Mr. Charles Johnson, uncle of Mr. Ray Botts was guest of Mr. and Mrs. Botts for a few days. Before returning to his home in Milwaukee, he took a short trip to White Cloud, Kansas to visit other relatives and friends. Joanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Botts accompanied him on the Kansas trip.

Mrs. Sarah Tarpley entertained three guests at breakfast Thursday morning, among them Mrs. Mildred Porter.

Grape Whip

1 package lemon flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 cup grape juice
Whipping cream, whipped
Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add grape juice. Blend thoroughly. Chill. Whip until fluffy and thick. Turn into a cold-water-rinsed mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve with sweetened whipped cream.

Honey Broiled Grapefruit

1 grapefruit, halved and seeded
2 tablespoons honey
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Few grains salt
Combine honey, lemon juice and salt. Blend thoroughly. Fill grapefruit centers. Let stand overnight. Broil under low flame 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot.

Nut Macaroons.

4 egg whites
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon almond extract
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
3/4 cup sugar
3 cups cornflakes, slightly crushed
1 cup pecans, coarsely chopped
1 cup cocoanut
Add salt to whites, beat to a coarse foam. Add flavoring. Add sugar in 1-tablespoon portions continuing beating until stiff and glossy. Fold in cornflakes, nuts and cocoanut. Drop from teaspoon onto well-greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven 350 F, until delicately browned, about 15 minutes. Remove promptly from baking sheet. About 3 1/2 dozen.

Beef Soup Special

1 piece shank bone, cracked
1 large beef knuckle bone, split
2 quarts cold water
2 large onions, sliced
1 pound soup meat in one piece
1/2 medium cabbage, diced
2 large carrots, sliced
1 green pepper, chopped
3 stalks celery, diced
1 small can tomatoes
1/2 teaspoon bay leaf
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
2 dashes cayenne
Salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 can consomme

Place cracked bones in soup kettle with water to cover. Add onions and meat. Simmer—do not boil—two hours. Remove meat, pour over it a little of the soup liquid. Cover. Add vegetables and seasonings to cooking bones. Do not fear to use sayenne—within reason—with black pepper. The first is for appetite stimulation, the second for flavor. Cook until vegetables are tender, not soft. Too long cooking gives vegetables a strong flavor and spoils the soup. Just before serving, replace the piece of meat in the soup. Heat meat through. At the same time add consomme, which contributes richness to color and flavor. Remove meat. Serve hot. Serve meat with horse-radish sauce, and potatoes.

Horse-Radish Sauce

1/2 cup butter or vitaminized margarine
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups boiling water
1 cup grated fresh or bottled horse-radish
Salt

Blend butter or margarine and flour in saucepan over slow heat. Add all boiling water at once, stirring rapidly. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce is thick and smooth. Stir in horse-radish. Season with salt. Remove from heat. Serve immediately.

Well-seasoned plain-boiled potatoes and this sauce are delectable served with soup meat.
