Miss Crawford Wins OES Award For Frosh Co-eds

Miss Florentine Crawford, Omaha, University of Nebraska freshman, was one of two persons to receive the first scholarship awards of the Amaranthus Grand Chapter, O. E. S., which met in Omaha June 16-19. The scholarship, established this past year under Past Grand Matron Cloma Scott, is awarded to the girl making the highest average in her freshman year at a Nebraska college or university.

Miss Crawford graduated from Omaha's Central High school in 1947 with commendation and a share of the Memo Club scholarship. During her past year on the Nebraska campus, where she is a student in the school of music, she has been a member of the chorus and the Ivy Leaf Club. Recently she was elected to the national girls pep organization on the campus.

The attractive co-ed shares the $100 award this time with Miss Barbara Waldron of the University of Omaha, who tied Miss Crawford's average, according to Mrs. Eva Ray, O. E. S. scholarship committee chairman.

Card of Thanks

We are happy to take this means of thanking our many friends for the many things they do to make the patients here happy and comfortable and especially do we thank Mrs. J. A. Shelby, board member and former attendant in charge here for her thoughtfulness and constant expressions of love and concern.

Respectfully,
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Adams

Socially Minded

REV. R. E. HANDY

The Rev. Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, Methodist Bishop of New York.

Clergymen who speak authoritatively and aggressively on social issues are rare. That's why the presence at the Assembly of the Rev. Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, Methodist bishop of New York, is important. He is one of the outstanding socially-minded bishops in the United States.

His leadership in Methodism was recently recognized when he was selected to present the episcopal address at the Methodist General Conference in Boston. He occupies an important place as interdenominational spokesman with his reputation solidly based on his singularly rigorous application of Christian principles to world affairs. He has been selected to address the assembly on this subject.

Bishop Oxnam has repeatedly set forth what he considers to be the Christian and democratic approach to communism, insisting that "Communism cannot be conquered by force of arms," but can be overcome only "by establishing democracy at home."

He has waged a tireless fight against racial discrimination, once persuading the late William Cardinal O'Connell, archbishop of Boston to join him in condemning anti-Semitic.

Born the son of a California industrialist, Bishop Oxnam has maintained a life-long interest in labor. He has constantly deplored "an anti-labor attitude" and has been active in promoting social and economic reforms.

Bishop Oxnam is a man of remarkable wide interests. Since leaving college, he has progressed upward through roles as teacher, professor, preacher, lecturer, author, college president, and bishop. He is widely traveled, having visited Russia three times, and covered extensively the Orient and Europe.

Bishop Oxnam will aid in a very concrete way the assembly's efforts to provide a realistic answer to the world's problems.

Deaths

Mrs. Lillian Richards, 64, died Friday night at the Carver Nursing home, 2001 Vine. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Luella Coleman, Oakland, Calif., and five brothers, Jeff and Trago T. McWilliams, Lincoln; Ralph McWilliams, Blythe, Calif.; Earl McWilliams, San Francisco and Paul McWilliams, Pasadena, Calif. Umbergers.

Randol Takes Lead In Emperor Jones

The first production of the season of the Circler Theater, which opens October 18, will be the noted "Emperor Jones" by Eugene O'Neill with George Randol playing the lead. This is expected to be one of the best and most complete productions yet presented at the Circler and a capacity audience is expected.

Mr. Randol, well known Broadway actor and singer, is director of the Circler Theater and his success in "Porgy and Bess" and "Anna Lucasta," places him in an unique position for the directing and the leads which he may accept. His interest goes beyond that of the theater however, he is completely equipped as a portrait photographer.

Nebraska Writers Guild Announces Contest For High School Authors

This week the Nebraska Writers Guild announced its first annual contest for high school students. Any original fiction or non-fiction manuscript may be submitted, but they must be typed, unpublished work and not over 3,000 words. Author's name must not appear on the manuscript, but must be enclosed with it on a separate sheet of paper. Mail all entries by Sept. 12, to N.W.G. High School Contest, 1105 E street, Lincoln 8, Neb. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope if ms. is to be returned.
