This week finds many interesting facts, some of which are:

T A C

Richard Holcomb is spending a few days in Kansas City. Real crazy.

T A C

Susie May White Hall returned from Omaha Sunday. She said she had a very fine time seeing all the people! "I hear ya."

T A C

Jackie Molden is down from Omaha to spend some time with us. Glad to see her back again.

T A C

Frank Burden returned this week from Arizona to spend some time with his parents. If I'm lucky I'll have him write a story about the many different places that Uncle Sam has sent him.

T A C

Miss Charline Colbert of St. Joseph, Mo., is here in Lincoln to look around a bit before she enters the University of Nebraska this fall.

Incidentally boys, she is a very nice girl!

T A C

Since the fad this year is driving fine cars, Billy Burns is not going to be left out, although his is not a fine car. It is a big green truck.

T A C

Looking real cool riding on Lavanda's motorcycle Sunday was Tony Smith.

T A C

The Clique Club met Sunday at Robbie Powell's house with Robbie and Florentine as hostesses. They had a short business meeting during which they decided to have another entertainment in the

Now that it is canning season you might like a few of my personal recipes and methods.

Green Beans

Wash, string, break freshly gathered pods into 2 inch pieces.

Boil 15 minutes. Pack into hot jars, add 1 teaspoon salt to each quart. Cover with water in which cooked. Process small young pods 35 minutes and large ones 55 minutes at 10 pounds pressure or three hours in hot water bath, give an extra turn to jar lids after you take them out of hot bath.

Carrots

Wash, scrape, and rinse, slice or leave whole. Boil 3 minutes. Pack into hot jars. Add 1 teaspoon salt to each quart. Cover with boiling water. Process 40 minutes at 10 lb. pressure or 2 1/2 hours in water bath then complete seal.

Beet Pickle

- 1 gallon small beets
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 long stick cinnamon
- 1 tablespoon allspice
- 3/4 cups vinegar
- 1 1/2 cups water

Cook and skin beets, add sugar and spices to vinegar and water. Simmer 15 minutes, add beets. Boil 5 minutes longer. Pack beets in hot jars. Cover with boiling
