Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Greene.

Greetings Gates:

This week finds many interesting things happening, such as...

The Urban League Girls Glee Club will appear at Pinewood Bowl, Sunday, Aug. 15. Hope you will come and hear us.

Misses Lila "Dimples" Pierce and Verdis Ross of Kansas City, Mo., are spending a week here. They came Friday afternoon.

They tell me that Skippie King has found his queen. He visits Mouse Tarpley's house every day to see her. I wonder who she could be?

Say, Mouse T., what do you think you are hiding? I know about you and that little girl that lives on T street. (I hear you.)

Feature of the Week.

Miss Freddie Powell left Wednesday, Aug. 4, for a convention in Topeka, Kans. She returned Sunday, Aug. 8.

She gave me a most interesting outline of her trip which was thus: She arrived in North Topeka about 6 p. m. and had supper with Rev. S. H. Johnson after which she attended the welcome service "At the Church in West Topeka."

At the welcome service she spied a fine man and naturally being a Lincoln girl she wanted to know him, so bright and early the next morning she was at breakfast where she met Joe Harvey.

She was elected to be a member of the Courtesy Committee at the convention.

Much to her surprise she met Welleen Brown of Omaha and Jack Richerson of Topeka and the foursome attended the fights.

Next evening she attended a theater and a party. (She stated that the girls were very friendly.)

She did quite a bit of sight-seeing in Topeka and please believe me, there was much to see.

She left Topeka Saturday afternoon for Independence, Mo., where she spent some time with Ruby Lee Harper in Kansas City visiting some of the night spots and riding in a fine Buick.

She had a most enjoyable trip. P. S. She came back with someone's basketball letter; they tell me that Joe Harvey is a great athlete. I wonder.

Feature of the Week is something I thought would be interesting so if you would like to be featured let me know (Tel. 5-7508) and I will be very glad to write about you. It does not the peaches. Put in refrigerator tray and freeze for about two hours. A few minced red cherries add flavor and color.

Evergreen Pickles.

Cucumbers pickles sometimes have a drab, faded look which is not very appealing, even though they are delicious. You can prevent this unfortunate occurrence by adding a teaspoonful of green vegetable coloring to each gallon of vinegar when you can the pickles. This gives a fresh green color that is most attractive.
