Sunday School Lesson

By R. E. Handy.

Subject: "Aquila and Priscilla."
 Scripture: Acts 18: 1-3, 18-19, 24-26; Rom. 15: 3-5, 1 Cor. 16:19; 2nd Tim. 4:19.

Golden Text: "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers." Heb. 13:2.

—The Lesson—

Today we study some of the background and life of a christian married couple.

Paul in his missionary journey came across this tent making family living in the Greek city of Corinth.

Aquila and Priscilla were Jews who had been banished from Rome because of race. Paul upon arriving in Corinth, at once, went to the Jewish quarter looking for members of his own race. Being also a tent maker, this couple took him in and they worked together at their trade.

Much can be accomplished by talking individually to people. Paul was able to convert them to the Christian faith. Paul as a soul winner was as eager to win souls by personal contact as he was when he preached to large congregations. Here is a lesson for us. Some who plead for souls in congregations, neglect to speak of Christ to individuals.

After establishing a church at Corinth, Paul on his leisurely journey to Rome was constrained to go to Ephesus. Aquila and Priscilla journeyed with him to Ephesus, and from there Paul continued his journey toward Rome, but Aquila and Priscilla lingered on in Ephesus. They were spirit filled folk but not eloquent. They lived the gospel. Apollos, one of John the Baptist's disciples came preaching and teaching the baptism of John, and he lodged with Aquila and Priscilla, and thus this couple was able to acquaint him with the baptism of the Holy Spirit and lead him to Christ, and Apollos went on to become one of the great pillars of this church.

Paul calls this couple "My helpers in Christ Jesus."

It means very much to be a true, humble helper of a real Christian leader, but every Christian may be a true helper. Out of faithful helpers God often chooses His leaders.

Lawn Social At Mt. Zion; Many Activities Planned

The missionary society of the Mt. Zion Baptist church with Mrs. Birdie Artis as president will have a lawn social at Mt. Zion Baptist church on 12th and F Streets on Saturday, September 4, 1948 from 5 p. m. until. There will be chicken and fish dinners.

Those attending will have the use of the canteen facilities which includes all types of games.

In the very near future, the Baptist Training Department of Mt. Zion will have a funny Old Fashioned Convention.

The usher board announces that they are planning a silver tea to be given at the church in a few weeks.

"Go to church Sunday" will be held the third Sunday in September. Members and friends of Mt. Zion are all invited to come in large numbers to enjoy the regular Sunday services. All Baptists not attending Mt. Zion and those not attending any church in Lincoln are cordially invited to attend.

Rev. John S. Favors, the pastor of the church, is planning an afternoon service for married couples of Lincoln. He will preach a sermon on marriage and following the service will be a marriage clinic in which questions concerning marriage will be asked and discussed. Private consultations may be arranged. Rev. Favors is planning to get a social-psychologist from the University of Nebraska to conduct the marriage clinic. This service will be held early in October. The canteen will be held every Friday as usual.

Girl Worker to Japan

WASHINGTON. (ANP). Miss Faith I. Marshall of Washington, an employe in the historical review section of the department of army, has received orders for transfer to the far east command in Tokyo, Japan.

Miss Marshall is a graduate of Cordozo High school and entered the government service in 1942. Since that time she has been employed as a clerk-typist in the mailing section and the historical review section in the Pentagon.
