Save work on washday by getting 4 or 5 deep cardboard boxes from your grocer. Cut a few holes in sides for ventilation and print on outside the type of clothes to be thrown into each box. On washday, clothes are already sorted.

Greetings Gates:

What's happening? Sky's falling. You'd better push it back up (KK&LW).

Norma Dunn and Emma White sang for the W.S.W.S. meeting in Elmwood, Nebraska, at which Mrs. S. Walker gave a speech.

It looks like the Navy is going to capture another one of our boys. What about that, Bobby?

Say, Jackie S., what are you up to now? I'm telling you it's amazing.

This week-end found Susie May Whitehall, and Lois and Cecil Hatcher in Omaha.

To the Teen Agers

The youth canteen of Mt. Zion Baptist church is asking your co-operation in keeping our canteen open. Lately Friday night doesn't seem to be a very good night for our meetings with football season open. We want to keep our canteen going for you. Everyone is welcome to come out for games and roller skating. If you want to help keep our canteen open, according to Mrs. Zeola Hammond, please call 2-2713. Your suggestions will be welcomed.

Let's take a peek at the New Look:

Phyllis Holcomb looked real neat in her grey suit with a two-tone pink scarf and black accessories. . . . I heard this remark made by a certain teenage girl.

Joyce Williams has more clothes than Carter has pills. Sunday she was wearing a real cool black and white checked cape with a fine black dress.

The Teen Age Club has been organized for the winter activities at the Urban League. The new age limit is 16-25. They elected new officers with Vern Wilson as President.

Delores Bowen and Jeanne Malone were in Omaha Sunday afternoon.

Until next week,

Bye now,
Dotty.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

My telephone has been ringing a lot lately asking the question what could I serve for a good meal that is filling and not so expensive and most of you throw away the things that would make a good meal. For instance one large carrot or half of a green pepper, a sauce dish of peas, etc. Do you know that one grated carrot and half of a green pepper, and a few leftover peas will make an attractive salad? Use one box of lemon jello, add these vegetables; when firm cut in squares and place on a bed of lettuce with a dash of your favorite salad dressing and see what an attractive salad you have. I would suggest serving with it this Philadelphia Scrapple and you will have a well balanced meal that will go a long way with the family budget. Serve a dish of apple sauce for dessert.

with most of the 3 quarts of water—save a little in which to cook liver. Let simmer slowly until meat drops from bones. In a separate pan cook liver in a little water until tender. Discard water. Strain pork. Save liquid. Carefully remove bones from pork. Chop meat finely. Chop liver finely. Add chopped liver to pork. Blend thoroughly. Add chopped pepper, celery and onion. There should be about 2 quarts of meat liquid left from pork. If too little, add water or chicken broth to make desired quantity. Bring liquid to a boil. Add corn meal slowly, stirring constantly. Cook until it is a thick mush. Add chopped pork and liver, salt, pepper, sage and thyme. Cook about 10 minutes. Pour into a cold-water-rinsed loaf pan. Let stand in cold place until firm. To serve, slice scrapple about 1/2-inch thick. Roll in flour. Fry in hot fat. Serve with chili sauce or pepper hash.
