

Joyce Williams Is Part-Time Office Typist

JOYCE WILLIAMS

Every newsman must type around THE VOICE office but it takes more than that to keep a newspaper rolling. That's where pretty Joyce Williams comes in—notebook and pencil in hand. Although she has only recently become associated with us, her efficient work has become another asset of THE VOICE. Miss Williams is a junior in business college at the University of Nebraska.

Alliance News

By Beatrice Motley

Mr. Max Woodlee, Jr., Edward Butler and Sam Smith started duck hunting season off with a bang. Mrs. Viola Lewis and the M. C. Woodlees are enjoying roast duck dinner Sunday, as a result.

Mr. Bud Darnell received a letter from his daughter Dorothy, who is in Honolulu, saying she will visit Alliance about the first of the year. Miss Darnell is engaged in the Hawaiian Government Service.

Mrs. Lucille Houchins returned to Alliance after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Rosalie Whitmon and family in Lincoln.

Mrs. Percilla Benson and her sister, Mrs. Peterson of Crawford, Neb., were the week end guests of Mrs. Gertrude Jackson, her sister Ethel Davis and Mrs. Charles Rugg also of Crawford.

Alliance residents were im-

Mrs. Mary A. Givehand

Mrs. Mary Adams Givehand is our Nebraska City representative. This capable young matron, who attended Kansas State Teachers College and taught grade school in Missouri, is doing a swell job gathering Nebraska City news and promoting reader interest in THE VOICE.

Greetings from Los Angeles

By Mrs. Esther White Green

Last month found yours truly visiting in San Francisco and the Bay Area. During my stay there I was the house guest of Mrs. Patern who gave a breakfast in my honor.

I was dinner guest of Mrs. Eltra Murry and her son, Walter. They spent two days showing me the sights of Berkeley. The remaining part of my trip was spent in Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White, both formerly of Lincoln, Nebraska, were blessed with another son after 15 years. Theodore "Mike" is very proud of his little five month old brother, Thomas, jr. Mrs. White was Aldridge Buckner.

Theodore was very happy over having won the "Soap Box Derby" for 1948 against about 200 boys.

In business for themselves, are Mr. and Mrs. Debney. They have a very nice little grocery store.

Mrs. Mildred Wilson Strawder had me over for lunch during my stay.

Being unable to visit all the Lincoln folks in the Bay Area, I just sent my greetings over the phone.

Teen Age Chatter

Greetings Gates:

This week is the beginning of my third year of writing TAC and it really has been fun. I hope you have enjoyed reading it as much as I have enjoyed writing it.

Halloween is just around the corner so beware of the witches, black cats, goblins and wolves, 'cause they'll get you if you don't watch out.

At the sophomore annual party at Lincoln high school, Winifred Winston sang "My Johann," by Grieg. There were several other interesting talents on the program.

Joyce Williams is spending some time in her home town this week. She will also go to Jefferson City for the Homecoming football game. (There will be much cooking after the game I bet) I hear you.

Kliques missing Sunday—No not missing part of us just journeyed to Omaha as we had planned at our last meeting. Freddie Powell, Betty Wilson and Phillis Holcomb left Saturday night and Robbie and I followed Sunday morning.

We attended Clair Chapel Methodist church Sunday morning with Rev. Hayes delivering a very interesting message. We went to Johnson Drug store and had malts courtesy of Babs Johnson. The evening was spent with Daniel Yancy and others being delightful hosts.

The journey home was most mad for we rode that great train, The Rocket.

Six members of the Urban League's Girls Glee club, sang at the Circle group of the Methodist church recently, they were Peaches Winston, Vonna Finley, Jeanne Malone, Loretta McWilliams, Susie May White Hall, Ionna Adams and Lopy Finley. The send three numbers.

DOROTHY HARRIET GREENE.

Dorothy H. Greene is the writer of our popular Teen-Age Chatter column. You've probably seen this charming miss out tracking down young folks' doings. "I hear you." "Dotty," as she signs her weekly stint, graduated from Lincoln High last June. She also helps with the office work.

We are glad to welcome a new teen-ager, Forrest Stith, who hails from Fort Meade, Maryland, where his father was a chaplain.

Fort Meade is an army camp located 20 miles off Chesapeake bay.

Forrest attended Bates high school, in nearby Annapolis which has an enrollment of 1,000 pupils. He was a member of the glee club there, took an active part in public speaking and was just entering into the field of journalism when he came to L. H. S.

Forrest is fond of athletics, and plans on trying out for football next season.

He is in the arts and science curriculum, and is planning to attend college and become a teacher of theology.
