

Politicos Make Last Bid For Election...

So much attention has been focused on the Presidential candidates recently, that we think it a good time to review some of the other important offices to be filled at election.

GOV. VAL PETERSON

Above is Gov. Val Peterson who has led us through the past two years. His administration has seen reform in the Board of Control, $21 million spent on road construction and maintenance, the establishment of a long-range building program for state institutions. The weak FEPC bill (LB 421—1947) failed to pass in the last legislature. He recognizes the importance of Negro history in Nebraska and favors the rights of labor.

FRANK SORRELL

Frank Sorrell is the Democrats choice for Governor. His platform calls for better management of the state's funds, greater aid to schools, reduction of the gasoline taxes, an increase in permanent roads and the return of many properties to the tax rolls. He would accept cut in pay as governor in order to help state's institutions.

KENNETH WHERRY TERRY CARPENTER

Sen. Kenneth Wherry has quite a record for conservative Republicanism. Too bad, but we can't call him a liberal. One of his two "liberal" ballots in the 80th Congress was in favor of a steam plant for the TVA. His position on civil rights is not clear.

Voice Readers need very little introduction to Mr. Carpenter. He of course, is sympathetic to the Dixiecrat cause and opposes the civil rights proposals, integration of Negroes in the Armed Forces and other points on the National Democratic platform. However, he would favor lowering prices. A self-made man, but not too good a job.

Urban League Gets $2,600 for Eisenhower's Oil

NEW YORK.—General Eisenhower's Indian head which he painted as an amateur for the National Urban League, sold for $2,600 at the Parke-Bernet galleries where the auction took place. William S. Wassell, a baker, was the lucky purchaser. Some 100 talented celebrities including Joe Louis, Jackie and Bill Robinson, Cab Calloway, Lena Horne and Mrs. Vincent Astor donated their paintings for the league. A sum of $13,576 was raised from the auction. (ANP)

If soot is spilled on carpets and rugs, cover with dry salt. It can then be swept without making a smear.
