

Social Briets

By Mrs. Basilia Bell Ph. 5-5531

Mrs. J. M. Jackson left Monday evening for her home in Ennis, Texas after spending about five weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. Lula Williams, her sisters, Mrs. Lottie Johnson and Mrs. Joseph Green and other relatives. Mrs. Jackson spent several days in Omaha as guest of her niece, Mrs. Edward Buxton. She was honored guest at dinner Sunday at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Shakespeare. Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Shakespeare's brother, Ernest Green of Omaha and Miss Ida Jones of Kansas City, Mo., house guests of Mrs. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Givehand motored from Nebraska City Friday evening to attend The Voice staff party given at the home of the Shakespeares.

Mrs. A. R. Adams of Nebraska City is spending an indefinite stay with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tapp.

Chaplain and Mrs. Merle Stith who recently moved to Lincoln have purchased property and are now at home to their friends at 2418 So. 9th St.

Mr. Charles Walker returned Thursday after spending two months visiting with his brother, Leonard Walker and his niece, Geraldine Stephens of Des Moines and his sister, Mrs. Eva Brokins of Chicago. Mr. Walker termed his trip a most enjoyable one with many social courtesies tendered.

The T. F. Club held its regular meeting with the president, Mrs. R. W. Ambers presiding. A ham dinner was scheduled for Wednesday, November 27 at the Lincoln Urban League, 2030 T Street, according to reporter, Miss Virginia Davis.

Town Meeting of The Air will discuss "What Should We Do About Race Segregation," Tuesday, November 9th at 7:30 p. m. The speakers will be Harding Carter, Raymond Spriggle, one other and Walter White, adviser to UNESCO on Negro Affairs. He is also on leave from the NAACP.

Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Greene.

Greetings Gates:

Miss Delores Young of Alliance, Nebraska was visiting in Lincoln, she stayed with her aunt Mrs. B. Whiteman.

Shirley Thomas and Pat Herndon were in the city over the week end.

Lois Hatcher and Susia May White Hall journeyed to Omaha last Sunday. They also had Omaha visitors the 29th. Real Groove.

Betty Wilson looked real sharp in her black suit and shoes with a blue scarf and coat, there were fine gold buttons on the suit.

Now for a Bit of Humor:
Picnicked on the river
Spread cloth on the bank
Dropped lunch in the water
And it promptly sank.

Ran for the bus
Was almost there
When I tripped on my feet
And swallowed my face.

Jumped the hedge
Guess where I lit?
T'was a mud puddle
That I hit.

Bob is stalwart
Bob has brawn
Yet how he does wilt
Mowing the lawn.

Went to the show
What did I see?
A great big hat
In front of me.

I take cars apart
To tinker I ache
Very few I can't fix
Not one I can't break.

The boys on the street
How they do flirt
When they meet brown eyes
And black and white shirts.

Nolan Davis

To the great disappointment of the Links and their fans, they were upset Friday night 6 to 10 by Omaha Tech.

Nolan Davis was not injured as seriously as it was first believed. He stated that he would be able to play in the coming game.

Bye Now
Dotty.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Uncooked Salad Dressing

1 cup whipping cream, whipped
1 package Philadelphia cream cheese, mashed

8 or 10 marshmallows, quartered

Combine ingredients. Blend thoroughly. Chill in refrigerator over night. When ready to serve, whip until thick. Serve with any fruit salad.

Potato Salad

There are almost as many kinds of potato salad as there are cooks to make it. Here is one that always calls for repeats.

1 pound potatoes
¼ cup vinegar
2 stalks celery, finely chopped
1 small onion, minced
¼ teaspoon white pepper
1 teaspoon salt
Dash cayenne
1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley
1 chopped pimiento
2 hard-cooked eggs, diced
½ cup mayonnaise

Boil potatoes in their jackets in salted water until tender, not mushy. Cool in jackets. Peel. Dice. Add vinegar. Mix carefully. Do not mash potatoes. Let stand one hour. Lightly combine minced onion and celery with potatoes. Add seasonings. Blend lightly. Add pimiento, eggs and parsley. Blend lightly. Blend in mayonnaise carefully. Place in refrigerator. To blend flavors let stand two hours before using.

Cinnamon Pear Salad

½ cup red cinnamon candy
½ cup sugar
½ cup cream cheese
2 tablespoons Tarragon vinegar
½ cup water
8 pear halves
Lettuce

Bring the cinnamon candy, sugar, vinegar and water to a boil. Reduce the heat. Add the pear halves and simmer gently. Baste often until the pears have a pinkish color. Allow to set several hours in juice in which pears were cooked. Turn once or twice. Drain and chill. Arrange hollow side up on lettuce nests. Fill each hollow with a ball of cream cheese. Serve with French dressing.

Dr. Harrington, 34, Named Head Of Sam Houston

AUSTIN, Tex. (ANP). A 34 year old pastor, Dr. Robert E. Harrington, was picked by the board of trustees as the next president of Samuel Huston college, it was announced here last week at the annual meeting of the West Texas conference.

Dr. Harrington will leave his congregation of the Mount Zion Methodist church in New Orleans to become one of the nation's youngest college presidents. He will succeed the late Dr. Karl E. Downs. His duties will begin Nov. 17.

Before becoming minister of Mt. Zion two years ago, Dr. Harrington was director of religious activities and professor of religion and philosophy at Wiley college.

He did his graduate work at Boston U. where he was the only member of the well known Boston University Seminary singers. He earned both A. B. and B. D. degrees at Clafin college and Gammon Theological seminary in 1933.

The new Houston College president rose to the rank of major while serving 2½ years as an army chaplain in India and Burma. In the service he preached in Methodist churches in Karachi, Calcutta, Bombay, Jubbulpore and Lucknow. In Jubbulpore he delivered the baccalaureate address to the graduating class at Leonard Theological college.

Dr. Harrington was born in Clover, S. C. He is a member of the Omega Pi Phi fraternity.

His wife, the former Miss Martinez L. Jones of Aiken, S. C., graduated from Southern university and has taught both high school and college classes. She is well known for her achievement in the field of music.

Talmadge Asked To Repudiate Klan Ceremonies

NEW YORK. (ANP). Warning that the Ku Klux Klan is planning a new series of terroristic activities in the south, the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi league urged Georgia Gov. M. E. Thompson and the mayors of two cities to "take appropriate precautions in time."

Herman Talmadge, gubernornominate of Georgia, was also called on today by the league to publicly repudiate two Ku Klux Klan ceremonies which have been scheduled for the avowed purpose of celebrating his election as "a great victory for white supremacy."

Reminding Talmadge of his recent disclaimer of Klan membership over a national radio hook-up, the Anti-Nazi league asked him to disavow the Klan meetings, which it said, "can only bring notoriety to your state."
