Bunche Predicts Arab-Jewish War At An End

HAIFA. (ANP). Chatting with reporters at a press conference in this tense city Dr. Ralph J. Bunche predicted that the end of the Jewish and Arab controversy in Palestine was in sight.

Although he made no positive statements on the situation he did say that peace was a "real possibility."

The acting United Nations mediator recently returned to the truce center here after conferences in Tel Aviv with King Abdullah, and later with Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion, and in Rehoth with Israeli President Chaim Weizmann.

While here in stricken Palestine Dr. Bunche has been provided with one of the heaviest guards ever provided a diplomat. Several jeeps and an armored car jammed with civilian and military police are accompanying him at all times.

Although he gave no specific information on the results of his conferences he hinted that more would be revealed in his report to the UN Security council. He did say that the Arabs have tacitly accepted the existence of the state of Israel.

"A more assuring truce will come," he said, "when sizes of opposing armies are reduced and leave the fronts."

Marian Anderson To Institute of Arts Project

NEW YORK. (ANP). Marian Anderson, Pierre Monteux, Gregor Piatgorsky, Jean Sibelius, Deems Taylor and Lawrence Tibbett have been added to the National Arts Foundation of musical advisers.

Plans are underway by the foundation to establish an Institute for creative work in the arts, modeled after the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, N. J. Here artists will carry on independent work in their chosen fields.

Carleton Smith, authority in the expressive arts, was named director of the National Arts foundation.

NEW YORK. (ANP). Shirley Graham, lecturer and author of a biography of Frederick Douglass, is among the guest lecturers in the course, "The Negro in American History," which Dr. William DuBois is presenting at the New School of Social research.

Miss Graham will address the students in the downtown village center on "Frederick Douglass and His Times."

Pearl Primus to Study Native Folk Dances

NEW YORK. (ANP). Miss Pearl Primus, one of the country's foremost dancers, left early last week for a one-year research mission to Africa to study the music, folklore and dances of the natives in Belgian Congo and West Africa. The study is being made under a Julius Rosenwald fellowship.

She plans to study the dances and culture of Nigeria, Ashanti, Gold Coast, Liberia, Senegal, French West Africa, and that of the pygmies and the Watusi (giants) of the Belgian Congo.

Seven Quit Phi Kappa Psi Frat. Over 'Race' Angle

SWARTHMORE, Pa. (ANP). Seven members of the Swarthmore college chapter of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity resigned from the Greek-letter organization here last week in protest against the national council's decision to suspend neighboring Amherst college chapter for initiating a Negro pledgee, Thomas W. Gibbs of Evanston, Ill.

In a letter to the campus newspaper, the seven said they could not "justifiably belong to any fraternal organization that chose its members on the basis of race and religious creed, rather than on merit." Included among those resigning was the chapter's president, Heinz Valpin, of Washington, D. C.
