The all church Christmas party held at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Edwards on Saturday evening was a delightful affair. It was another of those success efforts being registered at Quinn Chapel A.M.E. church under the administration of its new minister.

Parents Seek Restoration Of Science Courses Dropped in 'Equalization Move'

FREDERICKSBURG, Va. (ANP). Parents of white students were up in the air here last week over a move made by the King George county school board in cutting off five science courses from the curriculum of the King George high school. The action, as explained by the board, was in line with advice from Judge Leon M. Brazile of the 15th judicial circuit that the board must comply with the court injunction to equalize courses of study in white and Negro schools.

Judge Brazile had told the board that it could equalize study courses in only one of two ways: Either by bringing the Negro curriculum up to par with that of white schools or by eliminating from the white curriculum all courses not now taught at the Negro school. The board adopted the second alternative.

Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Greene.

Greetings Gates:

Here's hoping that you teens have a very very merry Christmas and that all you want for Christmas will be yours.

Bill Burns left Friday for the Navy. Too bad, girls, we lose another boy to Uncle Sam.

The Teen Age Club had a very fine formal party Monday night. All the lassies looked real sharp and the lads didn't look so bad either.

I have chosen this lovely maiden as the Teen of The Year "1948" She is Betty Wilson, who I consider the most all around girl in Lincoln. I'm sure you all agree.

Songs of the week: "It's Too Soon to Know," by Dinah Washington; "All I Want for Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth," Spike Jones.

For best dressed girl of the year I have chosen Miss Lois Hatcher. By the way this lucky girl is spending her holiday vacation in Kansas City. Real crazy.

Next week I'll give you my ideas of the all around boy, and the best dressed boy.

Bye Now,
Dotty.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many many friends for the lovely cards, flowers and the many visitors I had during my stay in the hospital.

Miss Gladys Easley

Chicago Seeks to Ouster Bud Young From Low Rent Flat

CHICAGO. (ANP). Claude "Buddy" Young, the New York Yankees $20,000 a year halfback, and 25 other tenants in five low-cost housing projects face eviction suits filed by the Chicago Housing authority in circuit court here last week. The suits were filed because all of the 26 tenants have incomes higher than that permitted in low-cost government-owned and operated housing units.

When Young, his wife and son moved in to the Altgeld Gardens in 1946, his income was $20 a week from his soldier's rehabilitation allotment.
