Teen Age Chatter

Hi there!

Birthday greetings are in order for Emma White who celebrated her sixteenth birthday on Monday, January 24 and then again for Betty Wilson who celebrated her nineteenth birthday on Wednesday, January 26. Old age is gradually creeping up on them.

Since school was out for most of us last week there were parties, parties, parties, beginning with Tuesday night when a group of teens had a jolly good time up to Phyllis Holcomb's house making fudge and what not.

On Wednesday night Susie Mae Whitehall, Nate Casteel, Hazel Wilson and Maurice Crouch enjoyed a cozy little evening together over to Susie Mae's home.

Friday night the Bowen home was the scene of an informal gathering with Albert Bowen and Mary Collier as host and hostess. Guests present besides the immediate family were: Loretta McWilliams, Hazel Wilson, Betty Bowman, Beverly Holcomb, Betty Wilson, Joyce Williams, Ed Moore, Howard Bean, Richard Holcomb, Donald Dorsey, Bill Darnell and Gilbert Cramer.

Saturday night we switched over to the Finley home where Lopy and Vonna were hostesses at a strictly couple affair. Each girl invited one guest. They were:

Hazel Wilson-Maurice Crouch. Betty Bowman—Richard Holcomb.

Betty Wilson-Albert Bowen. Vonna Finley-Nate Casteel. Lopy Finley-Ed Moore.

As one guest remark, "Girl, we had a fine time."

Maxine Stith was a guest in Lincoln over the past week. She really had a groovy time during her stay since the fellows were especially nice to her. How about that Bertram, Richard, Robert and Charles?

The man about town these days is none other than Richard Holcomb. He's quite a popular guy among the girls.

Cutest Couple of the Week: Thelma Martin and Ralph Wilson. I have also chosen Thelma as the best dressed girl of the week.

Glad to hear that Jeanne Malone is better now. She was ill a few days last week.

Attention Kliques: A regular meeting will be held Sunday, January 30, 1949 at the home of Phyllis Holcomb. Please be present.

The weather last week, particularly Sunday, was a source of enjoyment for some of us, especially for those who could ice skate. Did you see Shorty Botts and Smoky Molden skating up and down the streets?

Goodbye for now.
FREDDIE.

If you are looking for an easy inexpensive luncheon dish try these two. With this Frozen Banana Salad, you won't need to have a dessert, use one of your favorite muffin recipes or better still use my popover recipe in "The Voice" Cook Book. Serve some of your favorite crisp pickles, some of that good jelly you have been saving just for special company and "presto" you have it.

Creamed Eggs and Chicken in Noodle Ring
4 hard-cooked eggs 1 1/2 cups white sauce
1 cup diced cooked Parsley
chicken 6 stuffed olives
2 oz. can mushrooms

Make white sauce. Shell hard cooked eggs and cut in quarters lengthwise. Pour white sauce over eggs and diced chicken—heat. Add olives which are sliced. Saute mushrooms in a small amount of butter.

Make Noodle Ring as follows:
2 tbsps. butter 1/4 tsp. pepper
1 tsp. salt 1/2 cup hot milk
3 egg yolks 3 egg whites stiffly beaten

Cook noodles. Add butter, salt, pepper, hot milk, and egg yolks. Fold in whites last. Pour mixture into buttered ring mold. Set in pan of hot water and bake in 325° F. oven for 30 minutes.

Frozen Banana Salad

2 pkgs. cream cheese 2 med. size bananas
1 tsp. salt 1/2 cup walnut meats
1/2 cup mayonnaise 1/2 cup maraschino
Juice of 1 lemon cherries
1/2 cup crushed pine-1 cup whipping cream
apple Crisp lettuce leaves

Mix cream cheese with salt, mayonnaise, and lemon juice. Add pineapple, sliced bananas, nut meats, and cherries. Fold in whipped cream and pour into refrigerator freezing tray. When frozen, serve in slices on crisp lettuce leaves. Garnish with fresh fruit. Serves 6.
