Quinn Chapel Basketballers Win, Lose Two

The Quinn Chapel court five has been doing some fine playing in the YMCA-Church league this winter. At present they have a .500 average, having won two games and lost as many.

Present members of the squad include Richard Holcomb, Bill Darnall, and Ralph Wilson, forwards; Albert Bowen and Don Dorsey, centers; and Eugene Graham, George Alexander and Fletcher Bell as guards. Raymond "Shorty" Botts is their coach.

AME Bishop Gibbs Sails for Africa February 22

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (ANP). Bishop and Mrs. Carey Abraham Gibbs of the AME church, have just received word from Secretary of Missions Berry in New York, that their reservations for Liberia have been effected. They will sail from the Port of New Orleans on Feb. 22. Bishop Gibbs will be in charge of AME work in West Africa.

The advent of Bishop Gibbs will give Liberia three resident Negro bishops. Bishops Willis J. King and Bravid Harris are the other two. The Roman Catholic church has a resident bishop who is white and the Seventh-day Adventists a superintendent who is colored.

Minorities Hold the Spotlight for Significant Contributions

NEW YORK. (ANP). Representative leaders from the various minority groups have stood high in New York's news this week.

Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, the distinguished Chinese Ambassador to the United States was honored by his Alma Mater, Columbia university, with the Alexander Hamilton Medal. The award was presented to him by Dist. Atty. Frank Hogan at the Biltmore hotel. Some 400 individuals, including Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower witnessed the ceremony.

Dr. Koo told the gathering that communism was engulfing in Malaya and Indo-China and China's struggle to defend the cause of freedom and the democratic way of life could not be overestimated.

President Truman Cited for Origin of Civil Rights Report

NEW YORK. (ANP). President Harry S. Truman was cited as the one person in the country who did more to combat prejudice in 1948, by the Irving Geist Foundation awards committee, it was disclosed here last week by the Newspaper Guild of New York. The guild was announcing the 1948 winners among newspaper men who made outstanding contributions in the fight against racial, religious or nationalistic prejudices.

The awards committee was set up jointly by the foundation and the guild to annually select news material making an outstanding contribution to interfaith understanding or combatting prejudices.

The citation on President Truman credited him with originating the report of the Committee on Civil rights.

First prize of $500 went to Ray Sprigle for his series of articles on "In the Land of Jim Crow, originating in the Pittsburgh Post-Dispatch and appearing in the New York Herald Tribune. Miss Dorothy Norman, of the New York Post Home News, received the $300 second prize for her daily articles. Miss Selma Robinson and Herbert Mitgange split the third prize of $200. Miss Robinson's contribution was a feature article in the New York Star of May 23 entitled "New Seed on American Soil." Mitgange's effort, "Created Equal?" appeared in the Sunday magazine section of the New York Times of June 13.

Judges were Lewis Gannett, editor, book review section, New York Herald Tribune; A. H. Ras-kin, labor report, New York Times; Herbert Bayard Swope, former managing editor, New York World; Russel Crouse, playwright-producer, and Ed Sullivan, syndicate columnist.

Sec'y of Labor Confers With AKA Directors in D.C.

"Keep the wages of household workers high by encouraging the unionization of industrial workers," said Maurice J. Tobin, secretary of labor in an interview with Mrs. Robbie Davis, well-known Omaha matron, and four other directors of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority held in the departments building in Washington, D. C., recently.

"The recent presidential election has enhanced the position of the laborer in the affairs of government in our cities." The former governor of Massachusetts, under whose administration a state FEPC was set up, told the group, "I wanted this law and told the legislative bodies of Massachusetts as much." With this impetus, the bill had no difficulty in being passed by the Eastern lawmakers. FEP has been operating successfully in the Bay State for the past two years.

Real knowledge, like everything else of the highest value, is not to be obtained easily. It must be worked for—studied for—thought for—and, more than all, it must be prayed for.—Thomas Arnold.

Ohio Bill to Return Wilberforce Univ. to Church Control

COLUMBUS, O. (ANP). A bill was introduced in the Ohio senate here last week to amend sections of the Ohio General code governing Wilberforce university to provide for the appointment of three trustees by the AME church and five by the governor. The measure was drafted by Sen. William Boyd of Cleveland and followed recommendations made by Atty. Norman McGee, representing the university church trustee board.
