By Mrs. Basilia Bell Ph. 5-5531

Two new members were received in the Y. M. C. club at its last meeting, January 19, according to the club reporter, Virginia Botts. They were Mr. and Mrs. Temoir Terry and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams. After the business meeting games furnished the entertainment for the evening.

Mrs. Georgia Parker of Minneapolis, Minn., who was called to Lincoln because of the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Lewis, was accompanied by Mrs. Beulah Sellers Smith.

Mrs. Margaret Bell was admitted to a local hospital Sunday. Mrs. Bell is the wife of Walter Bell, jr.

Out-of-town persons attending the funeral of Mrs. Annie G. Smith were a brother, Charles Burt of Detroit, and three nieces, Miss Florence Reid of Detroit, Miss LaNelle Newton and Mrs. Adalaide Simington both of Kansas City, Mo., and the Rev. Alfred Newton of Beatrice, Neb.

Mrs. Virginia Johnson, 2301 S, attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Tennessee Bowler, whose funeral was held Sunday, January 30 in Hope, Ark.

The Lincoln Branch of the NAACP plans to have a Historic Tea to climax the observance of Negro History Week (February 6 to 13, 1949). The Urban League will join the NAACP in sponsoring this affair. There will be a round table discussion of the Negro race in America. Several young people of Junior high school, high school and university level will join other citizens in discussing the Negro from his African background to present day accomplishments. Individuals and organizations are invited and urged to attend this meeting at the Urban League, Sunday, February 13 at 3:30 p. m., according to Rev. Robert L. Moody, President of the Lincoln Branch.

Mother: "I hope you didn't take a second piece of cake at the party."

Bobby: "No. I took two pieces first time."

New President For New York Urban League

By Conrad Clark

NEW YORK. (ANP). Charles H. Silver, executive sales manager of the American Woolen Co., and president of the Beth Israel hospital, was elected this week to the board of the Urban League of Greater New York, according to an announcement released by Edward S. Lewis, executive director of the league.

Among the other persons elected to the board vacancies were P. J. Ebbott, vice president, Chase National bank; Urbain C. LeGost, assistant vice president, Dollar Savings bank and Mrs. Grace Rosenthal and Rabbi Charles E. Shulman of Riverdale Temple.

A board member of the Beth Israel hospital for more than 25 years, Silver is also a vice president of the Alfred E. Smith Memorial foundation, an overseer of the Jewish Theological seminary, trustee of Yeshiva university and a vice president of the Grand Street Boys' association.

Langston Whips Lincoln to Tie Game Series

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okl. (ANP). Led by center Nathaniel Neal's 18 points, Langston's cagers defeated Lincoln (Mo.) 58 to 46 to revenge a previous 62 to 58 defeat by the invaders earlier last week.

Coach Zip Gayles' Oklahomans built up a quick 16 to 6 lead early in the game. At the half Langston led 25 to 17. Lincoln rallied to within three points of the Lions, but then the Lions pulled away never to be challenged.

Simmons led Lincoln in scoring with 14 points. Other high point men for Langston were Fawcett with 13 points and Bushy with nine.

Teen Age Chatter

GREETINGS:

Well 1949 is now one month old. And what a month it has been with a little of everything happening. Now we gaze into February, which is always an interesting month. There is St. Valentine's day and what not. I also notice birthdays for two popular teens this month, but they come later on.

This weather has been terrific, hasn't it? It seems to have dampened our spirits somewhat, for nothing much happened the past week—but here goes!

On Friday night Lopy Finley won a most fine Elgin watch on Amateur Night at Capital theater. Just recently she won $15 on the same program. Good work, Kiddo!

Also on Friday night, Miss Betty Wilson was surprised with a birthday party given by Betty Bowman and Hazel Wilson at the Urban League. As the attractive, vivacious honoree walked into the lounge she was greeted with the "Happy Birthday" song. What a dazzled and surprised look was on her face.

There were so many present that I can't begin naming all of them, but everyone seemed to be having a swell time. Betty received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Looking fine awhile at the party were: Lois Hatcher, Birdie Powell, Peaches Winston and Nate Casteel.

An after-party was held at Betty Bowman's home following the birthday party. Those attending were Betty Wilson, Richard and Phyllis Holcomb, George Alexander, Delores Bowen, Bill Darnell, Hazel Wilson, Albert Bowen, Patsy Hubbard, Willie Ricks, Betty Bowman, Nate Casteel and Cecil Hatcher.

On Saturday night three couples enjoyed a cozy evening together over to Betty Bowman. Those attending were: Richard Holcomb, Betty Wilson, Nate Casteel, Hazel Wilson, Betty

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Do you have a carrot problem in your house? I think you can solve your carrot problems with these recipes. Try them, they are good. Then let me know how you like them.

CARROT CAKE

1 cup sugar—4 eggs—2 cups flour—2 tsp. baking powder—½ cup mazola oil—½ cup shredded carrots—1 tsp. vanilla and ½ cup walnuts.

Sift dry ingredients. Mix sugar and eggs. Alternate sifted dry ingredients with oil. Add vanilla and beat well. Fold

Bowman and Cecil Hatcher.

We girls have been trying to tell you boys that this is a WOMAN'S WORLD.

It took four girls to convince Albert Bowen. They really gave him a good face-washing in the snow, I hear.

They tell me that:

1. Ida Adkins has many admirers these days.

2. Betty King has a new heart-throb these days. Could it be Lewis Buckner? Listen Teens! Get set! There is going to be a sock party real soon. You will be hearing more about it in the near future.

Goodbye for now,

FREDDIE.

in carrots and walnuts. Bake in loaf pan in moderate oven for 30 minutes.

CARROT PIE

1 cup cooked carrots, mashed or riced—½ cup sugar—2 eggs and about 1 pint of milk. Mix well and pour into your favorite pie crust. Sprinkle a little nutmeg on top and bake, as you would custard pie.

The folks won't know the difference and it's delicious.

CARROT COOKIES

Sift together three times—2 cups flour—1 tsp. baking powder—¼ tsp. soda—½ tsp. salt—½ tsp. cinnamon—½ tsp. nutmeg. Mix well. Now add to this mixture—2 cups quick oats—1 cup raisins—1 cup nutmeats. Mix well and then add: 1 cup honey—½ cup shortening—1 cup grated carrots—2 whole eggs. Drop by spoonfuls on cookie sheet and bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes.

—and grate them for your soups and stews. They will never notice the difference.
