Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Greene

Greetings Gates:

Now, the time is growing close you are shopping for the fine clothes you will wear in the Easter parade.

Ionna Adams journeyed to Des Moines, Ia., to attend a funeral.

We have three more brains in our midst, according to Robbie Powell, they are Jeanne Malone, Flo Crawford and Freddie Powell they also received invitations to the Mortar Board high scholarship tea which will be March 20.

Six girls from the Urban League Glee club sang at Wesleyan Sunday, March 13, they were Susie May White Hall, Elois and Vonna Finley, Peaches Winston and Jeanne Malone.

I hear that Delores Bowen and George Riley have been seen together quite a bit lately, I wonder what's to it, I'm telling you.

What is this I hear about Emma White trying to out stare a certain boy? Could it be Charles Campbell. Hear me!!!

The junior choir at Quinn Chapel church will have a party after their rehearsal Friday night.

Now let's look at the brighter side of life—

She was waiting for him in the shadows of the hall. When he appeared she asked eagerly:

"What did father say when you asked him if you could marry me, dearest?"

"He didn't absolutely refuse," replied the young man sadly, "but he imposed a very severe condition."

"What was it?"

"He said he would see me hanged first."

Wife: "Before we were married, George, you used to give me the loveliest presents."

Meal Ticket: "Who ever heard of a fisherman giving bait to a fish after he caught it?"

Reporter: "What shall I say about the two peroxide blondes who had the fight at the baseball game last night?"

Editor: "Why just say the bleachers went wild."

Louis Had Greatest Record Of Any Boxing Champ

CHICAGO. (ANP). When Joe Louis retired as the undefeated heavyweight champion of the world he left behind the greatest record of any champion in boxing annals.

Among his achievements are: The youngest fighter to win the heavyweight crown. He was 23 when he kayoed Jimmy Braddock for the crown on June 22, 1937.

He held the title longer than any other heavyweight champion, 11 years, 8 months and 8 days.

He earned more money in the ring than any other fighter, $3,887,323.72.

During his 15 years as a professional fighter, Louis kayoed 52 opponents, won seven decisions, and was knocked out once. He defended his title 25 times, more than any other heavyweight champion.

He is the third titlist to retire undefeated. The first was James J. Jeffries in 1905, and the second, Gene Tunney in 1928.

Louis earned his popular title, the "Brown Bomber," in 1935. Los Angeles sports writers tagged him with this name after his three round kayo of Lee Ramage.

Peterson Lauds Cripple Kid Work

Governor Val Peterson today lauded the rehabilitation program for the handicapped child, sponsored by the Nebraska Society for Crippled Children. The society's annual Easter Seal sale, its only source of funds, is set for March 17 to April 17.

Headed by W. O. Swanson of Omaha, the Crippled Children's Society contributed to the establishment of school-therapy facilities for disabled children in Scottsbluff, Hastings and Omaha. A physical therapist to work in the Lincoln schools has just been engaged through a grant of $3,000 from the Lancaster county committee, headed by E. C. Boehmer.
