Sunday School Lesson

SUNDAY, MARCH 27, 1949
Theme—Jesus Among People of Other Races. Mark 7:24-37; Luke 7:1-10.

The Attitude of Jesus Toward People of Other Nations. The Jews did not love other peoples. Jonah did not want to preach to the Ninevites, he wanted them destroyed, he wanted God to belong to the Jews exclusively. He learned that God is the Father of all mankind.

Jesus was a Jew when the spirit of Judaism was very narrow and exclusive, but He did not in the least share in that spirit. It was because God "so loved the world" that Jesus lived His earthly life. "Let the children first be filled," He said to the Syrophenician woman, and His mission was first of all to the Jews. Yet he had passed through Samaria and seeing the fields white already unto harvest, had remained two days to teach those people of mixed Jewish and Gentile blood. He had been driven from Nazareth because He taught that God's mercy extended to Gentiles. And at the close of His earthly life He bade His disciples to go and make disciples of all the nations.

Three Friends. Two little ragged Negro boys stopped in at the corner candy store in Philadelphia one day and patiently waited until all other customers had left. Then they approached the storekeeper. He was attracted by their gentle manners; so when they asked if they could borrow three pennies, he offered them more. But they refused, insisting that that was all they needed.

The next day the children returned with the three pennies. The man protested, but the boys argued: "If we didn't pay you back, we couldn't ask you again if we needed to."

The rest of the story was not learned until months later. It seems that the mother of a frail little boy was very ill and had to be taken to the hospital. While she was there, his two closest friends—yes, the little Negro boys—had provided his lunch at school. They did it by shining shoes on Market Street after school and by serving a newspaper route before school. Only once did they fall short of the lunch ticket. It was then that the candy-store man helped out.—The Christian Advocate.

Funeral for Thos. Mason Held Sunday at Nehawka

Thomas Edward Mason, 59-year-old World War veteran and a rural mail carrier in Nehawka for 35 years, died at the Veterans hospital in Lincoln Thursday, March 17 of a heart ailment. He had been ill two months.

Mr. Mason was born in Nebraska City November 6, 1890 the son of Bell and Thomas Mason. On June 15, 1932, he married Thelma Robbins at Kansas City, Mo. He had lived in Nehawka since he was one year old.

He was a member of the United Brethren church and was a 33rd degree Mason. For many years he was secretary and treasurer of the American Legion post. During World War I he was in the 92nd division.

Surviving are Mrs. Mason and two children, Elizabeth, 10, and Tommy, 8. Also surviving is a nephew, Boyd Mason, who lived with Mr. and Mrs. Mason.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the United Brethren church with Rev. Thomas Moore in charge. Burial was at Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Robbins of Kansas City, parents of Mrs. Mason attended the funeral.

Special Service Planned At Zion Baptist Church

Installation will highlight the afternoon service at Mt. Zion Baptist church Sunday, April 10, when an Omaha minister, Rev. Mr. Adams will be special guest. With Rev. Mr. Adams will be members of his congregation who will come to Lincoln in a chartered bus.

Mr. Fred C. Bradley and Mr. James Stewart will be among those installed as deacons, according to the pastor, Rev. W. I. Monroe. The public is invited to attend the 3 o'clock service.

Church Club Organized

Thursday night, March 17th, a group of people gathered at the home of Mrs. Roberta Molden, 1966 U Street to organize a young peoples church club for persons between the ages of 22-35. Quinn Chapel Crusaders was the name given the club and the next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Jackson, 2211 R Street, on Thursday, March 24th. All young people of Quinn Chapel are asked to join as members and others as associate members, according to Mrs. Molden.

We Saw You There

If you who are described in the following paragraphs and can successfully identify yourself to the editors of The Voice, you will be awarded a coupon redeemable at some well-known place of business.

You were observed Sunday morning wearing a grey hat with a beautiful grey satin bow on the right side. You are a lady about 5 feet 3 inches tall, and you were wearing a grey coat, black shoes, black purse and gloves.

You were in company with a man wearing a green hat. You recently returned from a trip. Your name is..... Well you tell us and collect a $2 coupon to be used at Vine Street Market, 22nd and Vine street.

If someone else calls in before you, the award will be divided between you and the first caller with the right answer. (Phone 5-6491 or 5-7508.)

Last week Mrs. Sara Walker was identified by Mrs. Frank Hale and received a coupon for Beals Grocery.

For the Nobel Prize

The Nobel prize committees may nominate anybody they like for their prize for service to the cause of peace; the United States press appears more and more to have settled on its candidate. Hardly a day passes without some editor's nomination of Ralph J. Bunche, U.N. mediator between Jews and Arabs. He has just been selected to receive the Springarn medal for the highest achievement in 1948 by an American Negro, awarded annually by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Dr. Bunche's service far transcends any racial distinction. The Chicago News is the latest to testify that "it would be hard to find any American who served his country better last year."

Quiet Things

From Mrs. R. W. Smith, 891 South 33rd street, comes these poems, clipped for the benefit of "The Voice" readers. Thank you, Mrs. Smith.

When days are full of discord,
And every moment brings
Its share of strife and worry,
I think of quiet things,
Quiet things and calm things,
Lovely things like these:
Dim woods at nightfall,
Snow on hemlock trees,
A cherry tree in blossom,
Cobwebs hung with dew,
Yellow leaves drifting down
With sunlight flitting through.
Behind closed lids I seek them
Again and yet again—
Curling wisps of wood smoke,
Violets in the rain,
—Mary Charlotte Billings

Candle Dipping

A candle's but a simple thing;
It starts with just a bit of string.
Yet dipped and dipped with patient hand,
It gathers wax upon the strand
Until, complete and snowy white,
It gives at last a lovely light.
Life seems so like that bit of string;
Each deed we do, a simple thing;
Yet day by day, if on life's strand
We work with patient heart and hand,
It gathers joy, makes dark days bright,
And gives at last a lovely light.
—Clara Bell Thurston.

"What does it matter? I eat both sides!"
