

Enthusiastic Group Observes First Anniversary. The United Church Women's Kensington observed their first anniversary with a dinner at the Lincoln Urban League March 25. The group is composed of representatives of the churches of the city and was organized by Mrs. Brevy Miller who is serving her second term as president. The club has as its purpose the realization of the highest objectives for which church women stand. Co-operation with community projects, contributing to community needs, and creating closer harmony between the churches are all apart of the great work undertaken by the year old organization. Already, after having completed articles and presented their first bazaar, which will be an annual affair, the ladies have completed their first sewing assignment for the local Red Cross under the direction of Mrs. C. F. McAdams. They have arranged to assist at The Cedars, Home For Children.

Miller, Mrs. Stella Davis and Mrs. Sarah Tarpley. Members not shown in the picture are Mrs. Vera Powell, Mrs. Naomi Greene, Mrs. Fawntella Baker, Mrs. Corrine Neal, Mrs. Leona Dean, Mrs. Ollie Colley and Mrs. Arse Lena Hall.

Mrs. Sara Walker and her niece, Vivian, worshipped at St. John A.M.E., church in Omaha last Sunday.

The Rev. T. O. McWilliams was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening with a birthday dinner at his home. During the evening members of his church marched in singing Happy Birthday To You. He was presented with a beautiful zipper bag after which the group enjoyed ice cream and cake. Many other gifts were presented.

Attorney Ray Williams, Inspector in the Dept. of Labor and Mrs. Christine Althouse of Althouse Beauty School, both of Omaha were in the city Monday and Tuesday as delegates of the Republican Founder Day Convention. They were the only two Negroes elected on the State Central Committee. Their major concern was the recent compromise of the Nebraska Republican representatives in Washington. They told the assembly that it was sure to have serious lasting effect on their party.

Correction—The NAACP kick-off dinner will be April 22 instead of the 21st as stated last week. Persons holding tickets are asked to report to Mrs. Moody by April 14.

Mrs. Ethel Harris of Brookfield, Mo., spent the week end with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Victor McWilliams.
