Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Green
Greetings Gates:

So the high school stoo-dunce are out for their Easter vacation as of last Friday April 8th, but the campus stoo-dunce aren't quite so fortunate, their vacation doesn't start until today

This week there is much news. For instance, we are glad to see two of our boys back for a while. They are Bobby Graham and Walter Walker who have been in the navy for quite some time

Looking into the future I see two people becoming quite interested in each other. What about that, Susie May?

In my last T. A. C. Column I said I would have a question for this week, but when I asked you smart people what you planned for Easter, the reply was, "I don't know" So what do I do next?

Willie Ricks was certainly in the limelight the past week. He was honored with a birthday party Saturday evening in the Urban League lounge given by Betty and Hazel Wilson, Betty Bowman, Pat Hubbard and Loretta McWilliams. There were a lot of teens invited, so I won't try to give you the complete list. There were two out of town guests, Barbara Jackson and Howard Martin, both of Kansas City. Barbara is Betty Bowman's sister.

Seen together after the party were Betty Bowman, Ernest Taylor, Betty Wilson, Howard Martin, Joyce Williams, Richard Holcomb, Barbara Jackson, George Riley, Hazel Wilson, Bill Darnell, Jeanne Malone, Albert Bowen, Loretta McWilliams and Cecil Hatcher.

Robbie and Freddie Powell are going to spend their Easter vacation in St. Joseph, Mo., with Charlene Colbert. Other teens want to go to Omaha I understand.

Elbert Starks did a very good job on the Hardy's Talent program Monday evening where he received many, many beautiful gifts for being first place winner on the program.

Joyce Williams and Richard Holcomb are getting along very well. They have been seen together quite a lot lately. Real cool, Hey!!!!!!

Not so long ago I said that three girls would be happy in April, well the time has arrived Elois Finley was seen in the company of Chuck Simms, of Omaha, Mary Lou Knowles with Walter Walker and Peaches Winston with Bobby Graham.

So until next week,
Bye now Dotty.
