

Social Briefs

Lincolniters were on hand for the 3rd annual laymen's meeting held in Omaha Sunday, May 1. Mr. Allen Ramsey was one of four kings which was a feature of the days observance. The Rev. V. W. Williams of Omaha preached the sermon for the occasion. Other persons present from Lincoln were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bradley and Miss B. Bauwell. They were dinner guests of the Rev. and Mrs. John Favors and they attended union service at St. John A. M. E. where the Rev. E. V. Wade was the speaker.

Woman's Day was observed last Sunday at Newman Methodist church with Mrs. Fawntella Baker having charge of the program. Four Pew captains reported a total of $106.93 after having filled the church with guests from the various churches of the city. Mt. Zion Baptist choir, The Urban League Glee Club, Golden Voices of Omaha furnished the music for the afternoon with special selections from Mrs. Clyde W. Malone and Mrs. J. T. Wright. Mrs. Anita Smith, Mrs. Arthur Patrick and Mrs. Frank Williams read papers each using a basic theme, "the practical approach to Religious education." The Rev. J. B. Brooks, pastor of Quinn Chapel, delivered a short but dynamic message on the importance of woman keeping her rightful place with spiritual values paramount in their minds. Rev. Mr. Brooks warns against women placing themselves in competition with men and making an attempt to keep pace with this atomic age. Mrs. Dora Hubbard, captain, was presented a corsage of roses for having the highest amount. Mrs. Irene Smith, Mrs. Elenora Evans, Mrs. M. Jayne Moore were each given a corsage of carnations. The Rev. Wm. A. Greene, pastor, introduced a number of special guests among whom were, Chaplain Merle Stith, the Rev. Wm. I. Monroe, pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist church and the Rev. John Humbert.

The Lincoln Urban League will participate in the celebration of National Music Week, with a special program Friday, May 6.

Charles Bonds In Recital

CHARLES BONDS.

Charles Bonds, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bonds and Barbara Jean Moody, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Moody, were presented in a joint recital to about fifty music lovers last Friday evening at the Urban League. Miss Moody started her music training at the age of eight in Omaha as a student of Miss Etta Butler. On coming to Lincoln, several years ago, she became a pupil of Mrs. Eugenia Brown, her present teacher.

Barbara is pianist for the Northside Church of God, of which her father is pastor. Her program included:

- Prelude S. Rachmaninoff
- Fantasia O. Olsen
- Snow White Flower F. Grey
- Theme (Concerto in A Minor) ... E. Greig

Charles Bonds made quite an impression on his audience. He began piano at age 5 under the tutelage of Miss Ruth Dreamer. His two years of study shows great promise for his future. He played 10 numbers including:

- The Star Spangled Banner (Arr. by Smith, Richter)
- The Close Line Waltz (Schaum)
- Donkey Trail (Aaron)
- The Elevator (Schaum)
- The Little Brown Church (Pitts)
- Shortnin' Bread (Wolf, Schaum)
- Shoulder Arms (Seul, Holst)
- The Spider Dance (Schaum)
- Tattle Tale (Aaron)
- The Cricket and The Bumble Bee (Chadwick)

There will be selections from two church choirs, and solos and small groups. Everyone attending will participate. The program will begin at 8 p. m.

Mrs. C. E. Colbert of St. Joseph, Mo., was house guest of Mrs. M. B. Denton while in the city for the Convocation at which time her daughter, Charlene was an honor student.

Itan Mother's Day Court will be held at the Urban League April 11. All parents and friends are invited. The court will be held at 7:30 p. m.

Robbie Powell

Here are a couple of items that were left out last week.

Robbie Lee and Freddie Powell reported that they had a fine time in St. Joseph, Mo., over their Easter vacation. They looked real sharp Sunday. Robbie was wearing a green suit with green and white accessories and Freddie was wearing navy blue with pink and powder blue accessories.

Many other people had a fine time over their Easter vacation I hear. Will Brown spent his at his home town in Sioux City, Ia., as Lois Hatcher spent her time in Omaha and Kansas City.

Congratulations to Barbara Moody for the fine recital she presented Friday evening, April 29.

The Kluge Klub met Sunday afternoon with Joyce Williams as Hostess. They elected officers which are as follows: Pres., Freddie Powell; Vice Pres., Betty Wilson; Secy., Joyce Williams; Asst. Secy., Jeanne Malone; Treas. Betty Bowman; Chairman of the Ways and Means committee is Delores Wightman and Chairman of the Social committee is your roving reporter. Delores Wightman is a new member in the Klub. They made plans for our Garden party that will take place some time in June. The next meeting will be at Jeanne Malone's.

Say all you teens, if you like to play the role of the chef, why don't you call Bettie Rose Huston and enter the cooking contest, that means you boys too.

Bobby Finney is here again and I know a certain girl that is certainly happy. I'm telling you. Bye now, Dottie.

Date Swirls

- 2 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup white sugar
- 1 beaten egg

Filling

- 1/2 pound chopped dates
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup water
- 1/4 cup chopped walnuts
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

Sift together flour, soda and salt. Cream shortening and sugars thoroly; add egg. Add sifted dry ingredients and chill the dough slightly while cooking and cooling date mixture. Combine dates, sugar and water and cook for about 5 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in nuts and salt; cool and spread on dough which has been rolled in the form of a rectangle 1/4 inch thick. Roll up like a jelly roll, wrap in waxed paper to chill overnight. Slice 1/4 inch thick with a sharp knife and bake in a moderate oven (375°) 10 minutes or until lightly browned. Makes 5 dozen cookies. All the cookies need not be baked at the same time as the dough will keep in the refrigerator for several days. Makes 5 dozen cookies.

PEAS PAPRIKA.

- 3 c. fresh cooked peas
 - 1 tsp. butter
 - 1/2 c. light cream
 - 1/4 tsp. salt
 - 1/4 tsp. pepper
 - paprika
- Combine ingredients. Heat. Sprinkle generously with paprika. Six servings.
