Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Greene

Greetings Gates:

As you know last Friday was the 13th and to my knowledge there wasn't much bad luck roaming around. There was a midnight show and several of our Teens were among the crowd which included the great couple Emmy Lou and Alvin, better known as Joyce Williams and Richard Holcomb. I asked Emmy Lou if the Wolf Man frightened her and she quickly replied, "No!!!!!!" I wonder could it be because of the fine, strong man she was with. I'm telling you it's amazing. Others there were Fletcher Bell, Eugene Graham, Cecil Hatcher and Charles Finney. Glancing in another section, I saw Norma Dunn and Jeanne Ivory.

Cruising down R street Saturday evening was Susie May White Hall and Gerald Davis. They looked real gone together.

Say girls, if you want to see the latest thing in hair styles, get a load of the chic hair-dos that Betty Bowman and Betty Wilson are wearing.

Speaking of hair styles, why was Loretta McWilliams looking so cute; cool and excited in her neat feather curl? Could the reason be that Donald Morton was here on the track team from Omaha?

Beatrice Motley of Alliance, Neb., was in the city over the week end to see the track meet. I saw her strolling with Sonny Brown.

Jeannette Venegar won a $5 prize for the two entries she made for the Lincoln Naval Air Station contest. First, second, third and fourth prizes were won by Jerry Humphrey, Dick Nealy, Dick Gloe and Irene Mischnick respectively.

The annual picnic of Lincoln high school held at Capitol Beach attracted a few of our teens, among them were Ionna Adams, Panola Bradford, Delores and Albert Bowen and Cecil Hatcher.

Robbie and Freddie Powell and myself motored to Hastings and Grand Island, Neb., with their

Dear Brevy:

Both Charles and I have thoroughly enjoyed "The Voice" Cook Book. It was so thoughtful of you to remember us.

I find the desserts particularly delightful—all new to me and all delicious and I was in need of some fresh ideas!

Mrs. Bruce sent up a clipping about it from the newspaper. So I see it is having the success it well deserves—Both for being a fine book and a very worthwhile cause. It's a cause we'd like very much to contribute toward, so will you take care of the enclosed donation for us?

Congratulations and all success to your book.

Sincerely,

parents. We attended church in both places where Rev. Mr. Powell is the pastor of the M. E. churches. Say girls, I understand that there are more available fellows than girls in Hastings. You'd better check up.

Shirley Thomas was in the city to visit Beverly Holcomb over the week end. She is from Omaha, Neb.

Bye now,
