A. E. SIMMS

Alfred E. Simms of 1947 S St., is pictured leaving Burlington train No. 6 for the last time Thursday morning, June 30 after serving 40 years as a chair car porter. Mr. Simms retired July 1.

Many commendation and testimonials have been graciously extended Mr. Simms by his many friends and various churches which he has been privileged to serve during his railroad career.

Compliments from Conductor and Mrs. Clyde E. Edwards of McCook, Neb., were extended in in form of the following written and beautifully framed by Mrs. Edwards.

You have sold your last pillow
And made your last run;
You are done with time tables
On the Burlington,

You are finished with people
Who travel by train,
With their mouths full of questions
To weary your brain.

You won't have to keep smiling
And get five-cent tips,
After straining to carry
And fetch heavy grips.

Put your uniform jacket
And cap on a nail—
Settle back on your porch with
Your feet on the rail.

You have been a good porter,
Your record is clear,
May your pension bring pleasure
For many a year.

—Leta M. Edwards.

Church comes the statement that Mr. Simms served as a class leader and was an enthusiast spiritually; worthy, energetic and unassuming in his service.

Christ Temple Church congratulates Mr. Simms on his retirement and rates him as a spiritual builder, especially gifted with the ability to sing with a feeling that moves one to devotion quickly.

Mr. Simms says he will rest a while at home before taking a vacation.
