Klan Helps Communists All Over the World

WASHINGTON. (ANP). Probably one of the best friends of the so-called world wide Communist movement is the Ku Klux Klan. At least, Red propagandists think so, anyway.

Currently one of the most popular methods depicting the difference between American life and Communist life is to show a picture of the white-robed Klansmen parading thru the streets. Often Communists dress like the hooded mobsters and parade in city streets of satellite countries such as Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Greene

Greetings Gates:

So now is the time for all you Uni. students to make those 8 o'clock classes, since school started today. They are really looking sharp too. Some of the new-comers are Willene Brown, Charlene Dudley and Barbara Waldron all of Omaha. And many interesting male students also!!!! Who is it that always finds time to stop at the home of Betty Bowman? Could it be Hermon Slaughter?

I'm telling you we really have some fine dressers here in the great big city of Lincoln. Some of them are Doris Roberts, Delores Bowen, Phyllis Holcomb, Betty Wilson, Vonna Finley and Maxine Stith. It looked like an Easter parade Sunday morning at church.

Betty Bowman and Patsy Hubbard have returned from spending quite a visit in Washington, D. C., and adjoining states. They reported a real cool time.

The Klique Klub had a meeting at the home of Miss Betty Wilson Sunday and they made plans for a party the latter part of September. Real Gone Hey!!

I wonder what Betty Wilson's favorite candy is, could it be lemon drops? Let us in on the secret Bets!

Well Hugh Denton left last week but his memory still lingers on for he took Jeannie Malone to the fair the day before he left.
