Greetings Gates:

Bettie Huston had as her guests last Sunday evening, La Verne Farmer, Shirley Thomas and Cleveland Marshall, all of Omaha and Phyllis and Beverly Holcomb.

Betty Wilson is up and around after having her tonsils removed on Wednesday morning. During her illness she had lots of company and received many gifts, including ice cream, flowers and a lovely pair of hand-made earrings.

I hear that Charlene Colbert has very interesting company when she has her breakfast in the "Crib" every morning. Need some more company?????

Elois Finley sang a very lovely solo Sunday morning at Quinn Chapel entitled "Deep River."

Sunday afternoon at the Quinn Chapel State Day the youth choir gave a selection to welcome the many visitors. It had an act in in where Loretta McWilliams did a bit of cheer leading. She makes a good one, too. By the way that was a very poor showing from Oklahoma. What happened????

Joyce Williams returned last week after spending a week visiting friends and relatives in Missouri. An interesting part in her vacation was when she saw the homecoming game at which Lincoln upset Fisk 27-25 in Jefferson City, Mo.

Bye now,
DOTTY.
