congressional committee on civil rights.

Main features of the measure was a section which would make liable individuals who interfered with another's civil rights—an item contained in the recommendations of the President's committee. Currently only a conspiracy of two or more persons is illegal.

Advocates of increased civil rights protection contend that the mere knowledge that an arm of the justice department is actively interested will have a salutary effect on state and local officials who might otherwise infringe or deny individuals their rights.

Sunday School Lesson

THEME—The Universal God
SCRIPTURE—Isaiah 7:14;
Jer. 29; Luke 1.

This lesson makes use of the prophet's teaching of the conception of a universal God as helper, judge, and ruler of all mankind without regard to such superficial distinctions as those of nation, race and class. The end of the kingdom Judah has almost come in our lesson today. In 597 B. C., after only three months on the throne, Jehoiakim is carried to Babylon as a captive. With him went the flower of the nation, ten thousand warriors and a thousand artisans. Only the poorest of the people remained in Jerusalem. To these ten thousand exiles, Jeremiah sent a message from their old homes in Jerusalem, the contents of which make our lesson today.

Good citizenship is always accepted and is respected. It is possible under all conditions, however adverse. The fact that the children of Israel were in Babylonian captivity did not relieve them from their obligation to God to live honorably. Loyalty and patriotism to one's country is expected of citizens living on foreign soil—a citizen of the United States is loyal whether living for a time in China or any other country. Christian citizenship is applicable under any sky wherever a servant of God may reside or work.

God is with us everywhere and we may call upon Him wherever we are. When students leave home for a school in another city, they should still be good citizens for God, however the environment may have changed. God is still expecting their loyalty to continue. Families moving from one community or state to another should find the church immediately and take their places as before. Not only where one lives, but on the job or wherever they may be, his citizenship as a Christian does not change. The children of Israel were told to not only be good citizens in the midst of their captors, but to pray for them and for the peace of the city to which they were brought captive.—F. D. Jordan.

Return From Far West Trip

COLUMBIA, Mo. (Special). Rev. Dr. Lewis S. Goolsby, pastor of St. Paul ME church here, and Mrs. Goolsby, recently returned from a trip to the Pacific Northwest and the Far West, on a journey that included visits to Seattle, San Francisco, Bakersfield, Cal., and Pueblo, Colo. In all, the trip covered 5,744 miles.

In Seattle they visited their daughters, Melsena Goolsby and Mrs. Margaret Goolsby Bland and their son-in-law, Joseph Bland and granddaughter, Roslyn. In that city they were guests of Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Toliver, pastor of the 1st AME church. They were extended many acts of courtesy by the above and by Mrs. J. T. Bradley.

In San Francisco Rev. and Mrs. Goolsby were guests of Bethel AME church, which Rev. Goolsby formerly pastored, and of Allen AME church. They were much interested by a sightseeing trip through Chinatown and around the Bay City, Oakland, Berkeley and Richmond conducted by Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Paul, pastor of Allen church. Mrs. Georgia Marshall, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chamber. In addition to these persons, they were dinner and luncheon guests of Mrs. Marshall, Oakland; Rev. and Mrs. Davis, Berkeley; and Mrs. Florence McClelland, Mrs. Dobbs, Mrs. Vera Starks and her sisters of San Francisco.

In Bakersfield, Cal., they were house guests of old family friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. Drisdome. Since this, too, was a former pastorate, that of Cain AME church, many old friends were greeted and courtesies extended. In Pueblo, Colo., Rev. and Mrs. Goolsby were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Baker. Since Rev. Mr. Goolsby held a pastorate there from 1936 to 1941 many former acquaintances were refreshed. From Colorado, they returned to Columbia where Rev. Dr. Goolsby resumes his pastoral work.

Rev. Mr. Goolsby delivered sermons to the congregations at 1st Church, Seattle, and Allen AME church in San Francisco.

Wisconsin chapter of Phi Sigma Delta here last week. The chapter has sent a letter to other fraternity chapters in the country asking their reaction.

Churchmen Vote Segregation Fight

ATLANTA. (AP). Leaders of more than 23,000,000 U. S. Protestant church members voted Tuesday to help Negroes in a court battle to end racial separation.

Only southern Presbyterians dissented as the policy was proclaimed in the heart of the south by the executive committee of the Federal Church of Churches of Christ in America.

News from Elwood, Kansas

By Wilberta Brady.
Hello Folks:
Friday, December 16th will mark the First Inspirational Meeting of the Missionary Society of the Atchison Area at Bethel A. M. E. Church here.

Sunday afternoon the first Baptist choir and pastor and congregation rendered services at the True Vine Baptist church in Kansas City, Mo.

Miss Nova Barker had another sick spell Monday evening. She had to have the doctor. Mr. Otis Hayes is also on our sick list.

Mrs. S. Stevens and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Barker and Nova Sunday afternoon.

Saturday evening at 8:00 at Bethel Methodist church there was a biblical picture shown, entitled "The Prodigal Son."

From this week until Christmas there will be rehearsals for the Christmas programs at the churches and the schools.

Mrs. Mattie Page, Mrs. Frank Brown, Willa Mae Hayes, Marian Chambers, Shirley York, Marlene Page, Joyce Monroe, Janice Terrell, and Darlene Brown attended the branch Y in St. Joseph, Mo. Three foreign girls spoke on Christmas in their countries. The three girls were from China, Peru and Sweden.

Elwood High School Basketball team played Wathena High School Tuesday evening. Wathena won 65 to 32. Boys, you will have to do better than that.

Well folks that is all the news for this week.

Bye now!
