"I would rather have shacks where equality and decency and democracy are taught than have all the other finery," Williams declared in pointing out the importance of equality on the American scene. The ex-member of the late President Roosevelt's cabinet circles also said the greatest enemy of Negroes is the kind of liberal who urges caution on everything when there is no need. Negroes need leaders willing to sacrifice themselves, unwilling to compromise, Williams asserted.

Generally, Williams answered his text-subject, "Does Gradualism Work?" with a very positive and pointed "no." He hit the Southern Regional Plan as concocted by race-baiting governors who wished to circumvent the supreme court decisions that equal education for the Negroes must be provided. The speaker also called to task Negro and white educators willing to compromise with the plan and its working.

Teen Age Chatter

By Eloise Pinley.

Hi Teens.
Well vacation is over for awhile and most of us are back in school again.

Audrey Brooks from Hastings, Neb., left Lincoln Jan. 2 after spending a week as the guest of Ionna Adams.

Bettie Rose Huston spent New Year's day in Omaha, Neb., visiting Mrs. Dorothy Allen.

I'm sure a lot of people would like to know why Melvin Botts is always seen on R and Whittier streets, could it be because of certain girls that live over that way? ?????? Smiles)
