By Dorothy H. Greene
 Guest speaker at Newman Methodist church Sunday morning was the Rev. J. Simpson, pastor of the C. M. E. church.

Attending a tea in Omaha, Neb., Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bell, and Rev. B. Lane.

In the city over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hammonds who came to visit their daughter, Martha Jean, a trainee at Bryan Memorial Hospital, who recently had an operation. They were accompanied by Miss Thelma Gardner, their son, R. Hammonds and James Ware.

Miss Betty Ann Brown of San Diego, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, became the bride of William Burns, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Burns, sr. The wedding took place in Yuma, Ariz., on January 14th. Attendants at the wedding were the bride's mother, two sisters and a brother and Mr. and Mrs. William Burns, sr. Immediately following the wedding the bride's parents returned to California and the bride and groom returned to Lincoln with Mr. and Mrs. Burns.

Newly settled in their home are the Robert Letchers. They have moved from 2014 S to 1981 S. Already there has been cause for celebration in the new house when Mrs. John Miller was hostess at a house warming for the Letchers.

Attending the annual Y. W. C. A. dinner Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Malone, Mrs. Sara Walker and Mrs. Eugenia Brown. Miss Jeanne Malone was a guest speaker at the dinner.

Making plans to visit in Detroit, Mich., soon is Mrs. J. C. Hudson. She expects to leave early next month.

Wedding Bells
 Miss Dorothy Powell of Gary, Ind., became the bride of Charles Vaughan on Saturday, January 21st. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan are at home to their friends at 2204 U Street.

The Lincoln Police Department enjoyed a rare treat Wednesday evening at the Cornhusker Hotel when a play was presented by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. George Randol was one of the participants. The play, a modern-day holdup, was part of a series of instructions by the FBI.

Mrs. Corrine Workcuff of Spokane, Wash., is visiting with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Burks.

Teen Age Chatter

By Eloise Finley.
 Hi Teens:
 Friday, January 20th, there were many teens over to the Urban League.

Sunday night four of our teens were at the Student Union. They were Phyllis Holcomb, Doris Roberts, Eloise Finley and Chester Scott. They reported having a wonderful time.

There were many out at the game Monday, January 23rd. The boys won.

Thursday night, January 26, many of the teens were out at Irving for the basketball game. The Streaks won. Good playing, boys.

Friday night, not very many teens were out. Let's see more out this Friday.

Saturday night, January 28, There were two teams, a girls' team and a boys team. Both of the out-of-town teams won. We are taking our team to Omaha the 17th of February. After the games there was time for getting acquainted with the teams from Omaha.

The Kliques Klub met at the home of Delores Bowen Sunday afternoon. They have some nice plans for the future.

Bye now, see you next week.
 ELOISE.

be held in May in the basement of the church with Mrs. Ida Allen, Mrs. Maude Johnson and Mrs. Odessa Johnson in charge. In August the club will start work on the annual calendar project. A bazaar is planned for November with Mrs. William Beach as chairman. Those assisting her with arrangements will be Mrs. Vashti Mosby, Mrs. Ollie Colley, Mrs. Henry Harris and Mrs. Odessa Johnson. Father and Son banquet is scheduled for October. Mrs. Kathryn Huston is president of the organization and Mrs. Ida Allen is secretary.

Cherry Cobbler

- 1 quart Heavenly Cherry pie filling
- 2 cups sifted enriched flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3 teaspoons baking-powder
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 egg, well beaten
- 1/2 cup milk

Place cherry filling in bottom of rectangular oven dish. Sift together dry ingredients including sugar. Sift again. Combine shortening, egg, and milk. Blending with a fork. Turn on to floured board. Knead about 15 strokes. Roll to 1/2-inch thickness. Cut in rounds with small fluted cookie cutter. Arrange over top of cherry mixture to indicate individual servings. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 15-20 minutes. If preferred, make the dough with biscuit mix, sifted with a little sugar. To serve, the biscuits are placed upside down on individual plates. The cherry filling is spooned over them.
