Group Plans For the Hassel Building Fund; Date Set For February 14th

On Tuesday, February 14th, the Civic Committee is sponsoring a dinner at the Urban League for the benefit of the fund to rebuild the house of Mrs. Ida Hassel.

"The home, a frame structure, was a total loss in a fire last November. The flames also destroyed the clothing of her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Jones, and Mr. Jones and their four daughters whose ages range from 9 months to six years. Mr. Jones, a laborer at the Havelock shops, has been out of work for some time. He is a veteran of World War II," said Mrs. Bell.

Mrs. Hassel has been active for many years in Quinn Chapel where she sings in the choir and plays for the Sunday School. She has also fostered a group of girls for a YWCA swimming class.

Because of a ruling on fund distribution, the dinner is not being sponsored by the NAACP as previously announced.

Reservations may be had by phoning Mrs. Walter Bell, 5-5531, or Mrs. Robert Moody, dinner chairman, 2-4376.

DR. CLYDE MITCHELL.

The disclosure of the H-Bomb and the Administration's decision to construct the new mass-destruction weapon has already had its world-wide repercussions. It has made even more acute the problem of atomic control and the prevention of war. On the other hand, the signing of the Atlantic Pact last year has offered some measure of arms projection and an eastern extension of America's Eastern frontier.

February 10, 11 and 12, the Lincoln Conference on World Affairs will conduct a series of panels and lectures at Love Library auditorium under the theme, "How Can America Best Promote World Peace?" The series is under the auspices of the American Friends Service committee and numerous civic groups, including the Urban League, and individuals, under the chairmanship of Dr. George W. Rosenlof.

Speakers and panel discussants will be Dr. Clyde Mitchell, Dr. Reuben G. Gustavson, Dr. Albert H. Rosenthal, Elmore Jackson and Edward M. Martin.

Dr. Mitchell is recently returned from Korea where he was administrative head of the industrial and agricultural redistribution project and is chairman of the Department of Agricultural Economics at the University of Nebraska.

Dr. Gustavson is chancellor of the University of Nebraska and noted biochemist atomic scientist and member of the U. S. commission of UNESCO.

Edwin M. Martin is Director, Office of European Regional affairs in the state department and holder of several key administrative positions during the war.

U. N. Asked To End Labor Bias

LAKE SUCCESS. (ANP). The World Federation of Trade Unions asked the UN last week to take "concrete measures to end discriminatory labor practices in the United States, France, New Zealand, and in a dozen British and Belgian colonies and territories.

The labor agency in a 45 page memorandum, pointed out examples of practices which it maintained were carried out against workers because of their race or color. The Economic and Social council was urged to take "imperative immediate and effective action."

One of several labor organizations recognized by the UN as a consultative agency, the federation claims a membership of 70,000,000 workers. Members from the United States, Britain and some other Western European countries withdrew in December after the group was accused of being "Communist controlled."
