Members of the Mary Bethune Literary and Art Club are pictured here being elaborately entertained by their husbands who have enjoyed the hospitality of the club on numerous occasions during the past three years.

The semi-formal affair held in the Urban League lounge at 6:30 Wednesday, February 8th was one of the most unique of its kind in many a year. The delight of hosts were to excel all previous affairs, so the men made all the preparations of the perfect menu which was neatly and artistically served buffet style.

Among the 34 persons in attendance were the president of the club, Mrs. Otis Washington and Mr. Washington who motored from Beatrice, Neb., in company with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott. Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Newton also of Beatrice were among those who attended.

In the very near future the picture "Ambassador for Christ" will be shown at the Urban League, it was announced by Mrs. Robert Letcher. The picture is sponsored by the Baptist Training Union.

The Business and Professional Women's group of the World Day of Prayer will meet at St. Paul Methodist church Feb. 24th at 6:30 p. m. Dinner will be served with a program following. Mrs. Fawn-tella Baker and Mrs. W. I. Monroe are members of the planning committee.

Catholics Reverse Pilgrimage Stand

BY ROBERT TAYLOR

WASHINGTON.—In a complete reversal of its previously stated policy that Washington's Negro Catholics were not being encouraged to make the forthcoming Holy Year pilgrimage to Vatican City, an Archdiocesan announcement made here Sunday at every mass throughout the Archdiocese declared Negro Catholics are welcome to make the trip.

The policy change came three days after an exclusive Courier expose hit the newsstands of this town on Wednesday.

Issued over the signature of the Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Spence, director of education for the Washington archdiocese, the announcement said:

"Colored Catholics are welcome on the Archdiocesan pilgrimage to Rome. Those interested in making reservations may apply to the Thomas Cooke and Sons Travel Agency or to Monsignor Spence, director of the pilgrimage."

Teen Age Chatter

By Eloise Finley

Howdy!
Lincoln has been really buzzing this week.

Saturday, Feb. 4, the U. of N. Alpha fraternity gave its interfraternity party. Those who attended were as follows: Jeanne Malone and John Foster; Peggy McRuffin and George Riley; Eloise Jones and Gus Gillen; Eloise Finley and Howard Bean. We had a wonderful time.

Saturday Phyllis Holcomb had a few guests in to spend the evening. She served chili and pop and they played games. The guest list included Joyce Williams, Vonna Finley, Delores Bowen, Beverly Holcomb, LaVerne Farmer, Barbara Walters, Richard Holcomb, Albert Bowen, Bert Cooke, Ernest Taylor and Cleveland Marshall. They reported having a wonderful time.

Sunday, many Lincolmites were at the Student Union, among them were: Betty Bowman, Betty Wilson, Hazel Wilson, Joyce Williams, Sand Della Folling, Chester Scott, John Foster, Werner Lightner, Richard Holcomb and Ralph Wilson.

There were quite a few people at the last basketball game at Irving. That's great, keep it up.

The Decca club gave a Valentine party at the Urban League Saturday, Feb. 11. Everyone really enjoyed themselves. Refreshments included punch and cookies. It was real sharp.

Well, so long teens. ELOISE.

extensive holdings and kept right on mining. They have now excavated another cave as large as the 16-acre cooler and the government is said to be looking with covetous eyes upon the adjoining mine.

All of the younger generation of Kerfords are college trained. The third generation is now moving into the business. They are recognized as among the really substantial citizens of Atchison and of Kansas.

FREEDOM

was undoubtedly the ablest man in public life during his time. He was a scholar and a gentleman with a keen sense of justice which ever guided his actions.

Well acquainted with the history, diplomacy and language of European nations, he wisely guided Lincoln in foreign affairs during the Civil war. Stevens was the stern statesman who measured up to the requirements for dealing with the conquered secessionists. He was resolute, intelligent, daring and strong in piloting through congress the measures which sustained the war and guaranteed both freedom and equality to those in bondage. He was a man of the high order characterized by charity, honesty and sincerity.

He had nothing to do with the corruption which followed after his death in 1868. His sole aim was to do good to all men, and he therefore championed the cause of the equalitarianism which the people of that day would not accept. So-called statesmen of our time still contend for the right of their constituents to deny Negroes the right to live and move and have their being in peace, happiness and prosperity.

Faced with this bad records while trying to buy its way to world leadership, the United States has become a laughing stock for those on the rising tide of liberty, equality and brotherhood. In order to see ourselves aright before the world we are compelled to go back to the principles advanced by Sumner and Stevens four generations ago. These statesmen are rising, therefore, in the enlightened public mind, and we must re-evaluate their record as the advanced agents of democracy.
