Both newspapers are taking courageous steps by taking such action. They are the largest selling evening papers in the nation's two largest cities. They are key journals in the nation's largest chain of newspaper, a chain that is not known for any liberality.

(Recently a University of Nebraska bowling class had to be transferred because of the discriminatory policy of a local bowling parlor. At least two Lincoln bowling parlors, the Lincoln and Rosewilde, are known to have no discriminatory policy.—Ed.)

Teen Age Chatter

By Eloise Finley

Hi Teens,
Saturday night some of the teens gathered at Vonna Finley's for the evening. They were: Delores Bowen, Charles Frills, Albert Bowen and myself. We had a nice time.

Sunday, February 26, a car load went up to Omaha for the afternoon. They reported having a nice time.

Monday night there were many teens out to watch the practice. Some of them were: Winifred Jones, Vonna Finley, Barbara Moody and many others.

Tuesday night February 28, a number of girls were at the Urban League for basketball practice and if you ask me they are doing pretty good.

One of the Streaks had a birthday gathering on Tuesday night February 28. Albert Bowen celebrated his 20th birthday. His mother had a few guests in. They were Vonna Finley of course, and Charles Frills.

Wednesday night, March 1, everything was quite dead.

Thursday March 2, the Streaks played a game at Irving.

Friday night March 3, The Quinn Chapel choir gave a dinner. It turned out quite nice.

Saturday night, March 4, seen at the basketball game at the coliseum were none other than Winifred Winston Jones and Chester Scott. Nice going kids.
So long teens
Eloise.

Bunche, Julian Among Honored by Fellowship

PHILADELPHIA. (ANP). Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, director of the UN's trusteeship division, and Dr. Percy L. Julian, Chicago scientist, were among six famed Americans honored here last week by the Philadelphia Fellowship commission at a testimonial dinner.

One thousand persons saw Dr. Bunche honored for his work in mediating the Arab-Jewish conflict, and Dr. Julian cited for his development of synthetic drugs to treat arthritis and rheumatic heart diseases.

If for the barbeque sauce. If you don't have catsup take 1 can of tomato sup; add 1/2 can water and about 2 tablespoons pickling spice and simmer for about 5 minutes. Strain and use instead of catsup.

If you want to give your family a real treat serve them the Twin Mountain Muffins, page 30 in THE VOICE cook book.

Meat Balls in Barbeque Sauce. Form 1 1/2 lbs. seasoned ground beef into large balls. Brown in hot fat.

Combine 1 8-ounce can tomato sauce.

- 1/2 cup water
- 1/4 Cup vinegar
- 2 tablespoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup finely chopped onion

Simmer until thick; pour over meat. Bake 45 minutes in hot oven 450 degrees. Base meat balls occasionally with sauce.

If you like dressing with corn bread in it but don't want to make corn bread, just add 1/2 cup of corn meal to the dressing.

Up-and-Down Biscuits.

Break off a petal; each petal's about two bites of hot biscuit with cinnamon and sugar—

- 2 cups enriched flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 4 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 3 tablespoons sugar
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/4 cup melted butter or fortified margarine
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon cinnamon

Sift dry ingredients into mixing bowl, cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add milk all at once and stir until dough follows fork around bowl. Turn onto floured board and knead gently 1/2 minute. Roll dough 1/4 inch thick. Brush with melted butter and sprinkle with 1/4 cup sugar and cinnamon. Cut in 2-inch strips. Stack strips 5 high. Cut off 2-inch pieces and place, cut side down, in greased muffin pans. Bake in hot over (425°) 12 minutes. Make 12 bis-

MRS. HOWARD MOLDEN.

Ed. Note: This week we are presenting Mrs. Howard Molden, 1966 U street. She is sharing with us some of her favorite recipes and pointing out some of THE VOICE cook book recipes which are her favorites. First, she gives suggestions for the barbeque sauce found in THE VOICE cook book, page 9. She says it is the best she has ever made.

English Toffee.

- 2 1/4 cups sugar
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 1/2 cups butter
- 1/4 lb. blanched almond meats chopped
- 1/2 walnut meats finely chopped
- 1/4 lb. milk chocolate, melted

Bring sugar, salt, water, and butter to boiling. Cook, stirring constantly to light-crack stage (285°). Add almond meats and half the walnut meats; pour into greased pan. When cool, brush with chocolate and sprinkle with remaining walnut meats. Break in two dozen pieces.

Instead of always putting sugar in your coffee or tea, try adding honey or corn syrup. The honey will change the taste a bit, but you won't object to a little more sweetness, will you?
