Mrs. R. B. Lane and Mrs. Charles Williams of the Church of God in Christ spent several days in Omaha attending a missionary meeting recently.

The Rev. and Mrs. John L. Humbert were called to Grand Island on two occasions the past week because of deaths there. Willis Palmer accompanied them on Friday.

Mrs. William I. Monroe has been confined to her home several days the past week due to illness.

Jeanne Malone was student leader for Lenten vesper services at Love Library, Wednesday at 5 p. m. Rex Knowles, pastor to Presbyterian students at the University of Nebraska, gave the meditation.

Omahans on hand Sunday afternoon for Alpha Phi Alpha initiation were Eugene Harrison, Dr. Price Terrell, Earl Hunigan, John Barber, Ralph Shelby, Von Richard Trimble and Alfred Grice.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harris of Chicago were worshippers at Quinn Chapel Sunday morning. Mrs. Harris arrived a week ago to be with her grandmother, Mrs. Virginia Brown, who was hospitalized Friday, March 17. Mrs. Brown suffered a stroke and is little improved as we go to press.

Mrs. Anita Smith left Wednesday for Daytona Beach, Fla., where she is dean of women at Bethune Cookman College. Mrs. Smith, who was called home, due to illness of her mother, Mrs. Lillian Miller, left her much improved.

Miss Mary Sampson is home after receiving surgery at St. Elizabeth hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John McWilliams and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gill had as their guests recently the parents of Mrs. McWilliams and Mrs. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gardenhire of Alma, Kans., their sister, Mrs. Bertha Jarrett and their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gardenhire all of Topeka, Kans.

James Hill has returned home after receiving medical care at Lincoln General hospital.

Mr. Leslie Woodson of Topeka, Kas., was week end guest of his sons who are in school here. He was dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Dunn and Mr. Nimrod Ross of 2124 Q street.

Special Notice—The members of the Steward board of Quinn Chapel A.M.E. church reported a successful program on Sunday afternoon and expressed appreciation to the persons of the various churches who participated.

An Easter breakfast is being planned at Quinn Chapel and the public is invited.

Robbie Powell and Charlene Colbert were among Nebraska coeds who made averages of 6 or above and attended the Mortar Board tea the past week. Miss Colbert received the Mortar Board scholarship for the first semester and is a columnist for THE VOICE.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cooke, 2001 S St., are parents. A son, Michael Horace, was born Saturday, March 18.

Mrs. Susan King of Chicago left Saturday after spending about two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Horace Cooke.

Teen Age Chatter

Hi Teens:

Well another week has rolled around. The Streaks won a basketball game recently at the Urban League when they played Grand Island. Among those present were: Betty Wilson, Betty Bowman, Jeannette Venegar, Ionna Adams, Nolan Davis, Melvin Botts and many others. They reported having a swell time.

Friday, March 24, seen at Lincoln High 'high spot' were: Frank Parks, Clarence Zanders, Sonny Walker, Cecil Hatcher and myself. Cecil and I were on the floor show. We both sang.

Saturday, March 25, the Sharps and Flats Glee club gave a formal party. Refreshments were served and the evening was spent informally. Helping to make up the guest list were: Connie Wilson, Chester Scott, Audrey Brooks, Albert Starks, Beverly Holcomb, Willie Ricks and Marian Bradford. By the reports of the party they seem to have had a lovely time. Connie and Audrey were visitors from Hastings, Neb.

Another Hastings visitor recently was Lowell Smith, who motored to Lincoln on last Sunday. Marion Bradford of Omaha also made a return visit over the week end. We were happy to meet these young people at morning church services. Hope you liked our singing.

Cutest couple of the week: Betty Bowman and Robert Hammonds.

I heard that Ada Coffey spent the week end in Kansas City with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Coffey.

Next week I should like for all of you teen-agers to answer the question: WHAT I THINK OF GOING STEADY.

Bye now, ELOISE.

It's New at N.U.

The Modern Language department brought to the campus last week one of the top-ranking films of Latin America, "Dona Barbara," which starred Maria Felix, acclaimed by some to be the most beautiful woman in the world. The dramatization was so good that the film attracted not only students of languages and those Spanish-speaking countries, but others as well.

Congratulations to Jeanne Malone, a senior student at the University. Miss Malone was one of eleven senior women honored at a tea given by the Black Masque chapter of Mortar Board. The coeds were selected on the basis of high scholarship and participation in activities.

Lowell Thomas, Jr., lectured at St. Paul Methodist church last week. He described life in Tibet and showed a film entitled "Out of This World: A Journey to Lhasa."

"Once in a Lifetime," the fourth theatre production of the year, was run three days last week. Thirty-six students were in the cast which presented the hilarious comedy, which was a satire on Hollywood.

The Junior-Senior prom, the first to be sponsored by the Junior class in several years, was held Friday night in the Union ballroom, with Dave Haun's orchestra furnishing the music.

Jeanne Malone, Charles Goolsby and George Randol will be featured on a radio show Thursday, March 30. The program is under the direction of the University of Nebraska Radio department and is entitled "The Story They'll Never Print," by Erik Barnouw.
