NEWMAN METHODIST NEWS.

Rev. Wm. A. Greene, pastor. Sunday, April 16; the Rev. W. D. Lester, executive secretary of the board of education of Central West conference will be the morning speaker. Sunday, April 23, the Rev. J. J. Johnson, district superintendent of Topeka District will be the speaker of the 11 a. m. service.

Appreciation service was held Sunday, April 9, at Newman Methodist for the Rev. R. L. Moody and his family. Friends from all parts of the city gathered at 3 p. m. and made this an eventful affair. Prof. E. W. Hawkins, of Cotner college was liberal in his praise of Rev. Mr. Moody as a student and a man of great zeal.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hale and their daughter, Pumpkin left Thursday for Springfield, Ohio. They will spend about ten days with Mr. Hale's parents. Mr. Hale is a graduate student at the University of Nebraska.

Miss Charlene Colbert spent spring vacation with her parents in St. Joseph. Miss Colbert, feature writer for The Voice, is a sophomore at the University of Nebraska.

Miss Barbara Kelley, a teacher in the public school system at Vinita, Okl., arrived on Saturday in company with her mother, Mrs. Kelley and Winifred Winston to spend Easter with her parents.

Mrs. Beulah Gary of Phoenix, Ariz., spending a month with her mother, Mrs. Mary Adams of Nebraska City, spent Sunday in Lincoln with relatives. She was accompanied by her sister, and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Givehand, and Sanford Hern of Hamburg, Ia. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stith, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tapp and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams. Mr. and Mrs. Adams were hosts to a buffet dinner Sunday evening. Other guests included Mr. Charles Goolsby.

Mrs. Palmer of Cheyenne, Wyo., mother of Willis Palmer spent Easter visiting her son who is attending the University of Nebraska. She was guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Patrick.

Spending Easter in Omaha were Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson. They were in attendance at the presentation of the "Seven Last Words" by St. John A. M. E. Senior Choir.

Noticed a number of guests from out of the city worshipping at Quinn Chapel Easter Sunday. Beatrice, Neb., was represented by the Rev. Alfred Newton, Mrs. Newton and her sister, Miss Rosa Robinson, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Newton; Mrs. Lela Becks and her daughter, Mrs. Louise Patterson who were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jackson; Hastings, Neb., was represented by Lowell Smith, his sister, Mrs. Lillian Smith Hill and David Wilson. Omahans, too numerous to mention, graced the audience and expressed a great appreciation for the rendition of the cantata, "Life Eternal" presented by the choir. Many visitors from Mt. Zion Baptist, Church of God in Christ and other churches were part of the overflow audience.

The churches are asked to cooperate with the revival to begin at Quinn Chapel, Sunday, April 16, under the direction of the Rev. E. V. Wade, pastor of Cleave Temple, Omaha. The meet-

Teen Age Chatter

By Eloise Finley.

Hi gang: Well here is the news for last week. Sunday, April 2, many teens were out walking, and enjoying the sunshine.

Tuesday, April 4, everything was quite dull. What's happening?

Wednesday, April 5, a group gathered at the home of Vonna Finley. They seemed to have enjoyed themselves. Those there were: Delores Bowen, James Ware, Albert Bowen and myself.

Thursday, April 6, Delores Bowen had a gathering at her home. Refreshments were served and the evening was spent informally. Some of those present were: Barbara Waldron, George Riley, Jeanne Malone, Charlene Dudley, Robert Hammonds, James Ware, Florentine Crawford, Bobby Cooke and many others. They are reported having a wonderful time.

Seen at the Urban League Friday, April 7, were a number of teens. Among them were: Ernestine Burns, Frank King, Jean Burns, Albert Bowen, Vonna Finley, Cecil Hatcher and others.

Spending the holidays away from the city were: Martha Hammonds who was in Omaha and Ada Coffee who was in Kansas City, Kansas. Delores ings will last for two weeks and the public is urged to attend. Mr. Joseph Greene has returned after spending several weeks visiting a sister who is ill in Bryan, Texas.

Special services will be held Sunday afternoon April 16 at 3:00, at the Church of God in Christ. A group of singers from Omaha, Nebraska will sing. The public is invited to attend.

Bowen was in Omaha and Doris Roberts and Goldie Peters journeyed to Kansas City, Mo., and I spent Sunday in Omaha. Everyone seemed to have had a nice time.

What Do You Think of Going Steady?

I think going steady is a pretty nice deal if you really think you've found the right guy and if your parents approve of him.

I'm planning to study music at the conservatory in Orblin, Ohio when I finish senior high.

Steady dating seems to be quite popular at the present time. I think it's nice to steady date if you really know what you are doing and you are ready to stop seeking new boy friends.

I think it is all right for a boy and a girl to go steady if they are really going to be true to each other. If not there is going to be jealousy. Going steady to me would seem just like being married. Because you can't go out with anybody else. So I think that is one thing that should be made up in one's own mind, whether or not you are ready to settle down to just one person. When I finish school I would like to go traveling over the world so I could meet different people and find out their likes and dislikes, or I would like to be a nurse or a cosmetologist but most of all I really want to make something out of myself.

Don't think much of going steady. As for a career I have chosen nursing as my career because I like helping sick people and being a nurse's aid now will really help me in the future.

Here is another question for the week. This will be going to all seniors all over. And the Voice would like it very much if you seniors would write and let me know What You Are Going to do When You Finish School.

Bye now

Eloise.

Peach Marvel

1 No. 2 1/2 can peaches
2 tablespoons butter
1/4 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup coconut
Grated orange rind
Drain juice from peaches and save for sauce. In bottom of a baking dish melt butter, then add brown sugar. Place peaches outside down in dish, and over them sprinkle the grated orange rind and coconut.

Place in 350-degree oven and bake for 12 to 15 minutes, or until the coconut has browned delicately. While this is baking, make the sauce.

Marvel Sauce

To the peach juice add sufficient water to make one and one-half cups juice. Heat. Moisten a tablespoon cornstarch with a little cold water and pour, while stirring, into the peach syrup. Cook for five minutes.

Separate one egg, and beat the yolk and white separately. Add a small amount of the hot liquid to the beaten egg yolk, then add to the syrup, stirring constantly. Return to heat and cook for one to two minutes.

Pour mixture gradually into the stiffly-beaten egg whites, beating constantly while adding. Add a few drops of almond flavoring.

Serve on a dessert plate or in a sauce dish. Place sauce in bottom of dish and place peach in sauce. It may be served either warm or chilled.

Potato Puff Platter

Potato puffs
Green beans with bacon
Broiled tomato slices with Parmesan cheese

Serve potato puffs on large platter flanked by green beans cooked only with bacon. Add tomato slices broiled with a topping of Parmesan cheese and buttered bread crumbs. Add a sifting of pepper and salt.
