Teen Age Chatter

By Eloise Finley

Hi Teens:
Well let's see what the news is for this week.

Tuesday, May 9, Music Appreciation week was observed. Among those on program were the Quinn Chapel choir. It was really nice.

Wednesday, May 12, there was a Mother's Day dinner given at the Y. W. C. A. I sang two songs "Today" and "We Are Our Heavenly Fathers Children."

Thursday, May 11, everything was real quiet. What's happening?

Friday, May 12, Marion and Gladys Bradford were in town visiting from Omaha. I wonder if there is some special reason that Marion came down? Smiles.

Saturday, May 13, a number of teens were over to Betty Bowman's for a get-together. There were quite a few from Omaha. They were: Pitman Foxall, Bobby Taylor, Donald Morton, Donald Clain and many others.

Visiting in Lincoln for a while are Nate, Robert and Gladys Casteel all from St. Joseph, Mo.

Also visiting in Lincoln over the week end were Bill Darnell and Max Woodlee both from Alliance, Neb.

Friday, May 12th, Delores Bowen and Doris Roberts were in Omaha, Neb., to attend the Alpha Phi Alpha Spring party. They reported having a nice time.
Bye now ELOISE.

Dear Readers:—

I would like and appreciate so much if you will call and give me your favorite recipe and if I may suggest recipes that fit the season of the year. For instance right now the dandelion greens are at their best and the many other wild greens such as dock pepper-grass, wild tomato, wild lettuce, wild turnip etc. This is my recipe for Dandelion greens cooked—Clean thoroughly the amount of greens necessary and this requires lots and lots of washing, so they are absolutely free from dirt and gravel. Have a vessel full of boiling water, add greens and ¼ tablespoon soda. Boil just five minutes, pour in a colander drain thoroughly, then in a kettle which you have cooked salt pork or bacon rinds, so that you have about 4 cups of broth. Place greens in and cook slowly about one hour, salt to taste. Serve with sliced hard boiled eggs, pepper sauce and your favorite cornbread.

CARD OF THANKS:
I wish to thank the many friends who sent cards, flowers, gifts and the other kind expressions during my recent accident.
