Missionary Day Observed At Christ Temple Church

Sunday, May 28, Mrs. Ida Belle McWilliams will be in charge of a program to be held at 3 p. m. at Christ Temple church. The Rev. W. I. Monroe will be guest speaker for the occasion and a group of singers from his church will accompany him. Other numbers on the program will be an instrumental duet by Freda Brehm and William Schwabauer and a solo by Rubie Shakespeare.

The program is under the auspices of the C. W. W. W. of which Mrs. McWilliams is president and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith is secretary.

Teen Age Chatter

By Eloise Finley.

Hello Teens: What's new in Lincoln this week?

May 14th a number of teens were playing baseball on Whittier playground, after seeing them looking their best at church it was quite a change. But that is the life. Some seen at the playground were George Alexander, Phyllis Holcomb, Charles Finney and many many more.

Riding in two fine convertibles Sunday afternoon were Charles Finney, Delores Bowen, George Alexander and Phyllis Holcomb in a fine black Buick and Bobby Finney, Marion Bradford, Arnold Tarpley and Eloise Finley in a cool green Oldsmobile. Seems as though they were playing follow the leader or something. They reported a wonderful time.

Everything was real quiet Monday, I know everyone is just waiting for the 29th of May. Aren't you?

I would like to ask a question of the boys only. When looking for a girl you would like to go steady with what qualifications do you look for? Come on fellows fess up—we're interested.

Noticed a nice looking four-some looking around one of our big department stores Saturday afternoon. They were Birdie Powell, Connie Wilson, Hastings; Cecil Hatcher and David Wilson, Hastings.

Well that's all for now. —ELOISE.

Have you ever tried scrubbing a chicken all over with soapy water after removing the pin feathers? The next steps are to rinse the chicken well with cold water and drain it on an absorbent towel.

Rip Van Winkle and Sleeping Beauty slept longer than anyone else mentioned in literature.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Now the time has arrived when your families likes to eat their meals in the park or even in your back yard. So here are some very tasty recipes that will win you fame from all who taste such an enjoyable menu.

Baked Beans

- 3 cups dried beans
- 1/2 pound salt pork
- 2 tablespoons molasses
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon mustard
- 2 tablespoons salt

Pick over the beans and wash them thoroughly. Soak them overnight in cold water. Add enough cold water to cover and cook slowly for 45 minutes. Pour the beans into a baking dish. Cut the pork into 1/2-inch strips; buy in the beans. Mix the molasses, sugar, mustard, and salt with enough boiling water to dissolve. Pour the mixture over the beans, adding enough boiling water to cover. Cover the pan and bake in a moderate oven (325° F.) from 4 to 6 hours. An onion may be buried in the beans before baking. Soybeans may be substituted for dried beans. Follow the same directions.

Potato Salad

- Cooked Potatoes, sliced, 3 cups
- Onion, grated, 2 or 3 tablespoons
- Lemon juice, 1 tablespoon
- Prepared mustard, 1 tablespoon (optional)
- Pickles, dill or sweet chopped, 1/2 cup
- Hard-cooked eggs, sliced 4
- French dressing, 1/2 cup
- Mayonnaise, to moisten
- Salt and pepper to taste

Mix potatoes, onion lemon juice, mustard, pickles and eggs; combine with French dressing. Chill for several hours. Add enough mayonnaise to moisten. Season to taste and serve in lettuce cups.

Strawberry Surprise Cake

Prepare an angel or sponge cake. When cool cut around top of cake about 1-inch from edge; cut out a layer about 1-inch thick.

Hollow out center, leaving a well and bottom about 1-inch thick. Just before serving fill with strawberry ice cream or mousse. Cover with the layer of removed cake. Top with whipped cream and whole unhulled strawberries.

Iced Tea

Make hot tea full strength by steeping the full five minutes, or use a larger amount of tea leaves. Pour the freshly made hot tea over plenty of ice cubes in tall glasses. If preferred, tea may be made regular strength and poured over tea ice cubes. Tea ice cubes are made by freezing regular strength tea in a ice-cube tray of the refrigerator.

Sugar may be dissolved in the hot tea if each person likes sweetening. Lemon juice may also be added, about 1 tablespoon to each cup of hot tea used. Serve in tall glasses and provide a long handled spoon for stirring.

And of course you can always add your best fried chicken or just plain weiners to be roasted.

Soap and water scrubbing has been recommended to remove curb markings from white wall tires without scratching or harming the surface.
