Teen Age Chatter

By Eloise Finley.

Hi Teens:

Well, what is new in Lincoln for this week?

Sunday, May 28th, a car from Omaha was seen driving around Lincoln. Maybe some of you teens saw it, but if you didn't, it was a black convertible. Those in the car were Herman Slaughter, Le Roy Jameson, Raymond Frazier, John McClain and Eddie Baugh. They wondered if Lincoln was this dead all the time?

Monday, May 29th was the last day of school for many teens, and we are really enjoying life now.

Tuesday, May 30th, there were quite a few teens seen in the park attending the Urban League annual picnic. There were sandwiches, pop and ice cream plus games of all kinds. Everyone seems to have had a real swell time. Some seen there were: Hazel and Betty Wilson, who were dressed like twins, Bettie Rose Huston, Thelma Martin, Loretta McWilliams, Phyllis Holcomb, Delores Bowen, Doris Roberts, Goldie Petters, Mitz Woods, Ralph Wilson, Maurice Russell, George Alexander, and many many more.

Visiting in Lincoln from Omaha, Neb., on Wednesday, May 31 was Susie Mae WhiteHall.

Friday, June 2nd was graduation day for many teens. Those graduating were: Delores Bowen, Loretta McWilliams, Lester White, Sonny Walker, Jeannette Venegar, Frank Parks, Birdie Powell and Jean Burns, I think we should be very proud of all the teens.

Saturday night, June 3rd, there was a dinner party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Fields in honor of Birdie Powell.
