Organize Lay League

ELWOOD, Kas.—Bethel A.M.E. church of Elwood, Kas., organized the Laymen's League July 7, 1950. This league is a very outstanding association because it gives the delegates and members of the church a chance to have a voice in conference.

The elected officers are chairman, Hester Hoggatt; vice chairman, Clarence Lamasters; secretary, Mable Tapp; assistant secretary, Freda Gorman; treasurer, Gabriel Munroe, and chaplain, W. H. Brady.

The ladies of Bethel church gave a wonderful pie sell, July 21.

Pres. and Mrs. Stafford Able Leaders In Southern California

By Benjamin Wesley Inghram

The members of the Southern California Conference are grateful to, and high in praise of the President of the Laymen's Leagues, Mr. Coley W. Stafford, a Christian gentleman of the old school. His enthusiasm and zeal has set a flame of Lay evangelism never before seen in California. He and his supervisors are traveling through the state in groups, singing, preaching and organizing. Following him are preachers, evangelists, missionaries and laymen. His weapons are Christian and spiritual. His understanding of men, his patience and sympathy toward them makes him a great leader, traveling with him to all these meetings is Mrs. Stafford, encouraging us with her presence.

The goal is an active Laymen's League in every church, co-operating fully with the program of the church and pastor.
