Sunday School Lesson

Peter, Who Became a Man of Power.

Scripture—Matthew 16:13-17; Luke 22:54-62; John 21:15-17; Acts 2:5.

Memory Selection—Then Peter and the rest of the apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. Acts 5:29.

Present Day Application
By Frederick D. Jordan
Los Angeles, Calif.

The outstanding qualifications for religious leadership may be named in this wise: passionate devotion to Christ, unfeigned loyalty, and indomitable courage. In each of these Peter had been proved deficient, but they were latent in his soul and the events which followed made him the man of power we find in our lesson—a Peter thoroughly humbled, truly devoted to his Lord, and ready to carry out any commission, however difficult it might be. The boastful, confident, impetuous disciple who was so sure of his ability and of his place was like many of our leaders are today. His vacillation is also a common trait today. When Peter surrendered wholly to God and was willing to accept the guidance of the Spirit, he was an entirely different man. The need for our own complete surrender is shown here. It was the power of God that changed Peter. That same power is ours today. The Holy Spirit changes the soul, clears the human spirit and freshens it, it makes a transformation. Every possibility for spiritual power that Peter had is ours—if we will allow Christ's ideals to permeate our thinking and acting.

K. Buster Enters Race in Florida

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (ANP). Stetson Kennedy, well known for his exposes of the Ku Klux Klan, Columbians, etc. announced he is running as an independent write-in candidate for the U. S. Senate in Florida's general election Nov. 7.

In a radio announcement Kennedy called for settling the Korean question with "ballots instead of bullets," "total equality" among Americans regardless of creed or color, and "keeping war out of the world by taking the profit out of war.

Next to his No. 1 plank for peace, Kennedy is plugging for "color-blind democracy" at home. "If President Truman really wants to liberate some colored people, he need not go to the Far East—there are plenty of colored folks in need of liberation right here in the Deep South," Kennedy declared in his radio address.

Songs of Trust And Assurance

"... To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your heart, ..." (Psalm 95:7, 8.) Read Psalm 95:1-9.

Some voices recall cherished memories, anxious moments, endeared associations, sad experiences. Other voices speak of special occasions, family gatherings, Christmas festivals. The voice of each of those in a family circle is permanently branded upon the fabric of the memory of all the others. As time scatters members of families to places of their own, in loving memory their very voices seem sacred. We all treasure the jeweled joy of such associations, the voices of loved ones.

In the love of God and the sacrifice of Christ there is a larger family than our immediate family unit. Among mankind God impartially and at all times seeks to make us aware of His presence. His voice goes out to all parts of the earth.

How blessed the voice of God to the human heart and soul! Happy are we when we cherish, recognize, and obey it. When we heed the voice of God and permit God to guide us, we find His salvation becoming a reality within us. "To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your heart."

PRAYER
Our Father, delete from our minds that which would prevent us from hearing Thy voice. Impart to us the conviction and strength to obey Thy voice. In Christ's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
God's voice is always within hearing distance.

Doby, Easter Hit; Indians Win Two

WASHINGTON. (ANP). Playing in a two-night doubleheader, the Cleveland Indians fought their way into a virtual tie for second place, only 2½ games out of first place of the American league with a twin victory over the Washington Senators.

Sparking the attack were Larry Doby and Luke Easter, who together pounded out 10 hits in 17 times at bat. In the opener, Doby pounded out his 19th home run of the season and Easter drove in

Sooner or Later

A man, if he is wise, discovers that life is a mixture of good days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take.

He learns that it doesn't pay to be a too sensitive soul, that he should let some things go over his head like water off a duck's back.

He learns that he who loses his temper usually loses out.

He learns that all men have burnt toast for breakfast now and then, and that he shouldn't take the other fellow's grouch too seriously.

He learns that carrying a chip on his shoulder is the easiest way to get into a fight.

He learns that the quickest way to become unpopular is to carry tales and gossip about others.

He learns that buck-passing always turns out to be a boomerang, and that it never pays.

He comes to realize that the business could run along perfectly well without him.

He learns that it doesn't matter so much who gets the credit so long as the business benefits.

He learns that even the janitor is human and that it does no harm to smiles and say "Good Morning," even if it's raining.

He learns that most of the other fellows are as ambitious as he is, that they have brains as good or better, and that hard work, not cleverness is the secret of success.

He learns to sympathize with the youngster coming into the business, because he remembers a run to give the Indians a 3-1 victory.

Luke Easter smashed out two doubles and a single, driving in three runs in the nightcap to lead the Indians to a 5-3 victory.

This batting spree moved Doby past George Kell of the Detroit Tigers in the batting race with an average of .351. Kell is batting .350. Both men are far behind the league leader, Billy Goodman, Boston Red Sox, batting .364.

how bewildered he was when he first started out.

He learns not to worry when he loses an order, because experience has shown that if he always gives his best, his average will break pretty well.

He learns that no man ever got to first base alone, and that it is only through co-operative effort that we move on to better things.

He learns that bosses are no monsters, trying to get the last ounce of work out of him for the least amount of pay, but that they are usually pretty good fellows who have succeeded through hard work and who want to do the right thing.

He learns that folks are not any harder to get along with in one place than another, and that the "getting along" depends about 98 percent on his own behavior.
