Paul was a man of action, an explorer of new regions, a founder of churches. Above all he was a Christian missionary. Every other phase of his life was subordinate to this, Paul had a pioneer spirit. He had a genius for penetration into unworked fields, and at whatever cost of suffering or hardship. He believed in a missionary Christ. To him Christ was sovereign of the whole earth. He was King of all. Christ died, to his thinking, not for a few, or for a class, but for the whole world. If we have the missionary spirit, we too, will believe that Christ died for all, and be willing to do what we can as individuals to let all know. Paul Quinn had the vision of Paul when he asked the General Conference of 1848 to permit him to establish churches in the "west." He returned to the General Conference of 1852 reporting 44 churches established. God is calling today for pioneer spirits to do as did Paul. A minister was talking to two young men concerning their call to the ministry, and the claim of Christian work in mission countries. One gave an excuse with a familiar ring, "But I have never felt a compelling urge to give my life in the mission fields "broad." The minister asked the disquieting question, "Are you sure that you are within calling distance?" Are you?

ELWOOD NEWS

By Wilberta Brady
 Hello Folks:
 This week will be full of interest to some of you I know.
 Nova Jane Barker has entered nurses training in Salina, Kas.
 Shirley York, Willa Mae Hayes and Wilberta Brady represented Elwood at Ebenezer Sunday afternoon. The young women of that church gave a program. Atchison, Elwood and St. Joseph was well represented. There were also two young men from Germany there. A panel discussion about the situation of the world today was held.

Elwood High played Leora High Wednesday afternoon at Leora in a game of soft ball. Elwood won 18-9.
 Glendoris Cochrane is now residing in Kansas City where she is working.
 Anna Lee Parker is ill at home with the mumps.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert Enicks and family of St. Louis are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Luke Chambers and other relatives and friends. Mrs. Enicks is the former Beatrice Chambers.
 Caston Terrell has returned to work after a two week sick leave. Well, folks, that is all for this week. Will see you again next week.

Lincoln (Pa.) Prof. To Lecture at Uni.

COLUMBUS, O. (ANP). Dr. John A. Davis, political science professor at Lincoln (Pa.) university, will work during the 1950-51 school year as visiting lecturer at Ohio State university.
 His appointment marks the first time this university has employed a Negro teacher above the rank of graduate assistant. Dr. Davis is the brother of Dr. Allison Davis, a professor at the University of Chicago.
 At Ohio State, the Lincoln instructor will replace Dr. E. Allen Adams who is to be a visiting lecturer at Oxford university in England during the coming year.
 Dr. Davis was graduated from Williams college in 1933, the University of Wisconsin the following year with his master's degree. Last year he received his Ph.D. at Columbia university.
 In public life he has served as assistant director of the New York Commission against Discrimination and on the wartime federal fair employment practices committee.
