'Fighter Blood' Part of Series

Dore Schary, still remembered for his "Crossfire" at RKO, will produce for MGM "Fighter Blood," built around a Negro family. It will show what a Negro as a race means to America and American civilization.

This film will tell about the Negro's music, his gains in agriculture and his patriotism and great record in wartime.

Already started in production, this picture will feature a large cast of colored players including singers, dancers, musicians, and dramatists.

"Fighter Blood" is one of a series of stories to make up a screen album, "It's a Big Country." This series will tell the story of America. Other pictures in the set will feature the Chinese, Irish, Spanish, and other groups. Robert Siske will direct this production . . .

Messenger Retires

WASHINGTON. (ANP). Sam Hardy, 71-year-old capitol messenger, will soon retire after 42 years of service with the house ways and means committee.

Since beginning service with this committee back in 1908, Hardy has worked under ten chairmen.

The present chairman, Robert L. Doughton (d., N. C.), paid tribute to the retiring messenger from the house floor last Friday, while Hardy listened from the gallery.

The North Carolina democrat who came to congress in 1911 said he found this "loyal, efficient and devoted" public servant there when he arrived.

ago when the Dodgers faced league-leading Philadelphia in the fourth game of a crucial series. With Jackie out, the Dodgers lost the final to the Phillies and two straight to the New York Giants before returning to their winning ways again.

Also out of the Dodger lineup is catcher Roy Campanella who may return this week. Replacing him is Bruce Edwards, first string backstop before Roy joined the team. Eddie Miksis is replacing Robinson at second base.

With the chilly weather coming on your family will enjoy pancakes very much, so here is a variety of recipes that will be wonderful to make as well as eat.

Pancakes

2 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk
2 tablespoons shortening

Method: Sift the flour and then measure it and sift again with the baking powder, salt and sugar. Beat the eggs thoroughly and combine with the milk, and stir this mixture into the sifted dry ingredients, beating until smooth. Add the shortening, which has been melted, and mix well.

Heat the griddle or pan and grease it lightly. Test the griddle for the right temperature by sprinkling a few drops of water on it. When the griddle is just the right temperature, the drops will bounce for a second before evaporating.

Pour the batter for the pancakes on the griddle all at once, rather than 'spooning' it on.

Bake until the cakes are all covered with bubbles and the cakes are cooked around the edges. Then turn the cakes and cook until well browned on the other side.

Never turn pancakes more than once when baking.

Always serve pancakes hot off the griddle!

Serve pancakes with butter and syrup, or you might wrap hot cooked sausages in the cooked pancakes as they come from the griddle, and accompany these with apple slices that have been browned in sausage or bacon drippings.

Bran Dessert Pancakes

1/2 cup ready-to-eat bran cereal
1/2 cup milk
3 tablespoons fat
3 tablespoons sugar
1 egg
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt

Method: Soak the bran cereal in the milk for 5 minutes. You may use bran flakes in this or a shredded bran cereal.

Combine the fat and sugar and cream well. Add the egg and vanilla and beat well. Then add the bran mixture.

Sift the flour, then measure it and sift again with the baking powder and salt. Add this to the first mixture and stir only until well blended.

Pour the batter onto a hot, greased griddle. Cook slowly until brown on one side, then turn and brown on the other side.

Serve with stewed fruit, garnished with sweet or sour cream. Or, if you like you could serve these cakes with the usual butter and syrup.
