For this half century Progress Issue I have selected recipes from a couple of good cooks who have been in Lincoln for the past fifty years.

Pickled Lilly

Chop very fine
1 peck green tomatoes
2 small heads cabbage
3 green peppers
4 onions
6 large cucumbers
Put all in large stone jar and sprinkle with 1 cup salt. Let stand over night. Next day drain and scald in 1 quart vinegar and 2 quarts water. Take out with skimmer, drain in sieve. Make a syrup of 3 quarts vinegar, 4 pounds brown sugar. Let boil together 30 minutes. Put up in pint jars. It will keep indefinitely.

Tenn. to Admit Negroes To Graduate Courses

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (ANP). The state of Tennessee yielded to democracy last week and acted to admit Negroes to the University of Tennessee in professional courses.

This action came as a result of a ruling by State Atty. Gen. Roy H. Beeler who approved the admission of three Negroes to the school. He commented that "strife and toil" will follow his act.
