Sports Tales

By TOM CARODINE

Reynolds Spark Nebraska
Memorial stadium, Lincoln's Bob Reynolds, and his Husker paly mates toured the course in even part Saturday. They frolicked to their usual three touchdowns—and this time had enough help from the defensive platoon to shut out Penn State, 19-0.

The capacity Band day crowd of 38 thousand say Reynolds scoot to one touchdown in the first quarter and two more in the last period. That gave the sensational sophomore from Grand Island a terrific total of 11 touchdowns and 72 points in his first four college games.

Reynolds made more yardage than the Penn State backs altogether. Those of you who have not seen Bob "The flash" Reynolds run you had better see him before the season is up, because he is one of the best runners in this conference.

Robertson Sprints 83 yards. The Indiana blocking was superb. The victors rushed Bob Williams constantly and gave their own pitcher, little Lou D'Achille, neat protection most of the time. They

Grant Chapel Has Reception

KANSAS CITY, Kas.—The Stewards of Grant Chapel A.M.E. church, 2800 No. Tremont gave a colorful reception honoring Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Martin and Presiding Elder and Mrs. E. W. Newton. The reception was given as a send-off to these ministers in their new conference year's work. Rev. Martin received his third appointment as pastor of Grant Chapel and Presiding Elder Newton was appointed for the second time as presiding elder of the Kansas City District at the 30th annual conference which closed October 8th in Leavenworth, Kas.

Grant Chapel is striving to build a new church. The pastor appointed the following captains to head the drive: Mary Walton, Elnora Cummings, Martha S. Daoutcharged the Notre Dame forwards in creating opening for Bobby Robertson, swift Negro halfback. Robertson scored two of the Indiana touchdowns, the last one on 83-yards, sprint sprung from the first play after the third quarter's kick-off.
