Quick Butterhorn Rolls

1 cake compressed yeast or 1 package fast granular yeast
1 teaspoon sugar
1/2 cup milk, heated to lukewarm
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cups prepared biscuit flour
Softened yeast in 1/4 cup lukewarm milk. Add sugar and salt to remaining milk. Add softened yeast. Stir until dissolved. Add unsifted prepared biscuit flour slowly, stirring constantly. Turn dough on to well-floured board or pastry cloth. Knead slightly 10 minutes. Roll out in circular shape to approximately 1/2 inch thick. Cut as you would cut a pie. The base of each wedge should be about 3 inches wide. (Cut first into halves, then quarters, and each quarter into thirds to make 12 rolls.) Begin rolling dough at the wide edge of each wedge. Roll toward point. Turn corners of roll down into a crescent shape. Place in well-oiled pan. Let rise until treble in bulk. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 12-15 minutes. The entire process should be completed in 2 hours.

Supper Salad

1 cup cooked lobster meat
2 tablespoons French dressing
1 cup chopped celery
2 tomatoes, cubed
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 teaspoon salt
Pepper and paprika
1 avocado, sliced
Cube lobster and marinate one-half hour in French dressing. Add celery, tomatoes, onion and seasonings and toss lightly. Arrange avocado on lettuce and top with lobster mixture. Serve with may-

Bananas—How to Keep

Never place bananas in the refrigerator. Keep them covered with waxed paper on a shelf. Bananas are a tropical fruit and should not be cold. If bananas are bought with part of stem, they will keep longer and should be ripe when eaten.

'Youth of the Week'

Clarence Brown, 16 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Brown, has been chosen as "Youth of the Week." Clarence, a sophomore at Lincoln High school, was born in Hallboro, North Carolina. In 1944 he moved to Lincoln with his parents. He works after school to earn money to help buy his school clothes and he is saving to attend the University of Nebraska.

Clarence is a First Class Explorer Scout. He has three sisters and two brothers.

Clarence lives with his family at 1198 B Haskerville.

Pioneer Leaders Buried

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (ANP). Dr. J. R. A. Crossland, 82, one of the nation's pioneer and great Negro politicians and for more than 50 years a practicing physician, was buried here last week.

A tall, erect, imposing, and dominating figure during his lifetime, Dr. Crossland lived a dynamic life as a leader in politics, medicine, and fraternal orders, and in both Negro and white affairs.
