Sunday School Lesson

Growing Through Reading and Meditation

Scripture—Acts 17:10-12; Philippians 4:8, 9; 1 Timothy 4:12-16; 11 Timothy 2:15; 4:13.

Memory Selection—Whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Philippians 4:8.

PRESENT DAY APPLICATION

By Frederick D. Jordan,

Los Angeles, Calif.

The other day someone was talking about a lady who went into a market and asked for a steak. She refused several which the butcher offered her. While he wrapt the piece she reluctantly accepted, she was heard to remark, "I am careful about what goes into my stomach. I want nothing but the best." A few minutes later the same woman was seen in a book store. She said to the clerk, "Give me a book to read," when the clerk asked what kind of a book, she replied, "It doesn't matter much, something popular which does not cost over two dollars." She wanted the best for her stomach but she was not very particular about her mind. Her name is legion. Go into the Christian homes and see the trashy stories, comics, and magazines which clutter up the place.

Parents should have good food for the minds of their children as well as for their stomachs. The Young People's Department of our Woman's Missionary Society under the leadership of Mrs. Alma Polk publishes some splendid literature. Their publications should be in every home. If you have not seen them, have your Sunday School Teacher order a supply and put them in every home. Even as our bodies are nourished and grow from what we eat, so our minds grow, on what we read.

Sports Tales

By TOM CARODINE

Nebraska Clips Kansas, 33 to 26
 MEMORIAL STADIUM, LAWRENCE, Kans.—Nebraska football forces threw balance instead of individual punch at Kansas Saturday. And they came out with a 33-26 victory.

Instead of Bobby Reynolds being a one-man pasting show as he had been in past games, the five Husker touchdowns were marked up by as many different players.

Ron Clark who sparked the aerial defense. Time after time he knocked down throws just when receivers were ready to wrap their fingers around the ball. Nice going team, keep up the good work.

Husker Frosh. Defeated 7-6
 Hopes of the University of Nebraska Freshman for a all-victorious football season were dimmed Saturday by a 7-6 loss to the Colorado Frosh.

UCLA to Invade Indiana
 Three mainstays of the hard-hitting U.C.L.A. Bruins who invade Lafayette, Ind., for a game with Purdue this Saturday. Ike Jones a good pass receiver and a classy defensive halfback. Luther Keyes center, stands out as a defense halfback, but sees plenty of action on offense, also. The standout performer of the three is Dave Williams hard running full back.

Buddy Young 'Tops' With Teammates

Buddy Young, the "atomic squirt" of the yanks backfield is one of the most popular men on that squad of giants.

The little fellow is palsy walsy with most of the players, but his two best buddies are Jack Russell and Martin Ruby.

In the recent game with the inspired '49ers, the Yanks were behind in the final ten minutes of the game. One of Buddy's pals was told to go in and make a good block on the next play and it would be a touchdown. A quick hand off to Buddy and as Russell said, "Before I got a good solid block on my man, Buddy had crossed the goal line. That was the fastest thing I've seen and I've seen lots of speed."

Ezzard Is Athlete of Month
 Amassing the greatest number of points voted any other professional athlete, Ezzard Charles, the Cincinnati Cobra, who conquered Joe Louis to become undisputed world heavyweight champion, won the poll of September to qualify for the first annual Ray Hickok Professional Athlete of the year award.

Mighty Sweet

Nat (Sweetwater) Clifton who towers 6' 5" in height, is expected to be one of the big wheels with the New York Kinckerbackers' cage team this season. Clifton who also plays baseball with a Cleveland Indian farm team, was purchased by the Knicks from the Harlem Globetrotters.
