Sunday School Lesson

The Stewardship of Life
Scripture — Romans 12:1-8;
II Corinthians 7:1-9; Philippians
2: 19-30.

Memory Selection—I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Romans 12:1.

Present-Day Application
By Frederick D. Jordan
Los Angeles, Calif.

God wants our lives. We should not think of stewardship only in terms of money, for God wants not just what we have but what we are ourselves. He wants us to make our lives count for Him. Paul speaks about the different gifts or abilities of individuals and our duty to use them all to the glory of God. A friend once told me that when he reached the age of fifty, he intended to settle down, take an active part in church and to join a lodge. For by then, he said, he would have been everywhere and have done everything he could do, would have seen everything and would be ready to die for by them the world would owe him nothing. This is not what God wants, the leavings, the dregs of your life. The use we make of our lives is important. If our whole life is consecrated to God, then it includes our money, our talents and everything. This view of stewardship leads to a sense of Christian vocation in the church and in business and professional life as well. In whatever work we are engaged our daily conduct should be such as would recommend the religion that we profess.

Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Thee
Take my moments and my days
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my will and make it Thine
It shall be no longer mine
Take my heart, it is Thine own
It shall be Thy royal throne.

Sports Tales

By TOM CARODINE

With the curtain completely down on the gridiron all around us, let us say the song is ended but the melody lingers on. Thanksgiving day provided an upset that gave the Huskers sole possession of second place in the Big Seven. This is the first time in a number of years that the Scarlet has been able to finish that high. Let us all take our hats off to Coach Bill Glassford for his great job of molding a fine Husker machine that came back into prominence after being down so long. To him goes the credit of going to the mighty Minnesota camp and coming away victorious. To him goes the credit of taking a sophomore back, Bobby Reynolds, and molding the nation's number one scorer as well as a potential All American.

The Huskers went down Saturday afternoon after a gallant battle that shall be long remembered by both Nebraskans and Oklahomans. It was once again rambling Robert who scored 23 of Nebraska's 35 points, that gave the nation's number one Sooners a scare of their lives. The Husker fans will long remember flinging Fran Nagle who hit his target often Saturday afternoon.

Coaches of the State picked an all state High school football team for 50 and this is how it stacked up according to the World Herald of Omaha, Neb.: At the ends the honors go to Lincoln Northeast, Paul Fredstrom, Dick Grell; tackles, Bernard Hazika, Creighton Prep; John Sebold, Grand Island; guards, Charles Ruvolo, Omaha North; Charles Bryant, Omaha, South; centers, Melvin

Mix Tan GIs In 'White' Units

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA.—About one hundred Negro replacements were distributed to the three regiments of the 25th Infantry Division this week. All of the replacements were fresh from the States having arrived in Japan by air transport and by boat to Korea.

Six of the 22 soldiers being assigned to a white regiment were in high spirits and said they were pleased with the idea of integration.

Hansen, Omaha Central; backs, Don Smith, Lincoln Central; Dewey Wade, Omaha North; Bob Smith, Grand Island; Jim Cederdahl, Lincoln, Northeast.

DETROIT. (ANP). Playing as they have not performed any time this season, the Detroit Lions surprisingly overwhelmed the New York Yanks 49 to 14 before a Thanksgiving crowd of 30,206 fans in freezing weather.

To win the Lions literally stopped the Yanks' famed speed backs including Buddy Young, George Taliaferro, and Sherman Howard, holding the Yanks rushing attack to only 85 yards.

Quarterback George Ratterman completed 26 of 48 passes for 356 yards, but this was not enough to cover the Lions' versatile attack. Taliaferro scored a Yank TD a 26 yard heave from Ratterman.

Playing for the Lions in the defensive backfield was Horace Smith.

This loss eliminated the Yanks
