Newman WSCS Has Valentine Party

Newman Methodist WSCS was host to 17 ladies at a costume Valentine party, Tuesday, Feb. 13th. The group exchanged valentines and played games under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Nahan. Mrs. Frank Pierce baked a lovely heart shaped cake surrounded by smaller heart shaped cakes which served as the centerpiece for the table. It was as delicious as it was beautiful. Mrs. Ralph Johnson and Mrs. C. O. Shepherd were co-chairmen of the party which was held at Mrs. Johnson's home. Mrs. Fawntella Baker is president of the WSCS.

PRESENT-DAY APPLICATION
By Frederick D. Jordan
Los Angeles, Calif.

The transfiguration certainly must have been an event that powerfully confirmed the disciples in their faith in Jesus as the true Messiah and Son of God. Never again could they question His deity for what they saw and heard could have only the one explanation. We may too have an actual experience of fellowship with Christ, our worship is essential to our religion, but is not all of it. For even as Jesus came down from the mountain and began immediately to take up His wonderful ministry of service, so we must know that we can only prove our fellowship with Christ by our acts of service in His name. Service should always follow inspiration. The man with good intentions never gets anywhere, he never accomplishes anything, it is the one who puts his good intentions to work, that is of service to the world. Did you intend to stop by and see a shut-in on the way home from church today? Then do it, do not decide to wait until another Sunday when it doesn't look so much like rain. What about those clothes you plan to get together some day and send to Africa? Sometimes it is as simple as that—good intentions put off.

Flag That Honored Pres. Given to Dillard Uni.

NEW ORLEANS. (ANP). Dillard university recently added to its historical collection when it was presented the American flag that paid tribute to the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt on the day of his death, April 12, 1945.

Voice of America Covers Robinson-Lamotta Bout

CHICAGO—(ANP)—When Ray Robinson and Jake LaMotta fought for the middleweight championship of the world, Wednesday night, they also tossed in a few punches for democracy.

The Voice of America covered the fight for the benefit of Italy. The Voice made a tape recording which will be edited, then sent to Italy.

Mike Bongiorno did a blow-by-blow description of the fight in Italian. He also interviewed both fighters and their wives. He translated what they said into Italian for his audience.

This broadcast, he said, is being carried to Italy because LaMotta is an Italian and possibly even more because Robinson is scheduled to fight there this spring or summer.

Robinson is very popular in Italy especially after his recent trip to Europe. His anti-Communist statements endeared him to many freedom-loving Italians, according to the Voice.

The radio-cast will be relayed to radio stations throughout Italy. Seated next to the Voice of America crew was ANP reporter, Luix Virgil Overbea.

Negro Introduces Fighters Counts For Knockout

Without a doubt many television fans in the nation did not notice that Eddie Plique, the man who introduced the fighters and announced the bouts from the ring, was a Negro. This probably is the first time a Negro has held such a responsibility at a championship fight.

Another Negro, Frank (Fay) E. Young, veteran sports writer, was the man who would have counted at the knockdowns had there been any in this bout. In other fights on the card, however, Fay did have a chance to illustrate his ability.

He illustrated a loud clear voice that probably was heard throughout the vast stadium, despite the fact that he did not use a mike.

Prominent in the background was a third Negro, Truman K. Gibson Jr., secretary of the International Boxing club, promoters of this bout. He ran the financial end of the show including ticket sales.

This spirit of democracy utilized by the IBC has made it the first large scale promoting outfit which has utilized Negroes beyond that of merely appearing in the ring as boxers. Joe Louis, whenever, he retires, will still be director of boxing.

Top Pro Game of Year Feb. 23 in Chicago

CHICAGO—(ANP)—The fabulous Globetrotters and the fantastic Minneapolis Lakers once more are ready to meet in the nation's top pro basketball game of the season. The date is Friday, Feb. 23 at the Chicago stadium.

A sellout crowd is expected to attend this game. Full houses have jammed the stadium the past three years pitting the nation's two top basketball teams against one another.

The first game will feature the New York Rens against Chicago's new independent pro club, the Chicago Majors.

The Lakers hold an overall 3-2 edge over the Trotters in their competition during the past three years. They feature the great George Mikan, 6 feet 10 inches of basketball terror.

Mikan leads the National Basketball association in scoring for the third straight year. The Lakers are the professional champions. Besides Mikan, they have two other top league stars, Jim Pollard and Fred Mikkelsen, both very tall and very good.

For the Trotters there are the old reliables, Goose Tatum, fantastic ball handler and point-maker; Ermer Robinson, whose last second field goal won that memorable first game for the Trotters.
