Walcott-Charles Rematch To Be Held Sept. 26

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—(ANP)—Newly crowned heavyweight champion Jersey Joe Walcott will have to whip deposed champion Ezzard Charles again in September if he wants to keep his crown.

The tentative date for the bout is Sept. 26, and the probable site is the Polo Grounds in New York although Pittsburgh and Detroit still hope to get the fight.

Walcott at 37 became the oldest man over to win the heavyweight championship, Wednesday night, when he knocked out Ezzard Charles in :55 of the 7th round after leading all the way.

With a beautiful left hook, the new champion kayoed the old one in one mighty blow. Charles fell flat on his face, tried weakly to arise at nine, then dozed on back to sleep.

A crowd of 28,272 fans, the largest of the year to see a boxing bout, paid $245,004.49 to see the first heavyweight championship bout ever held in Pittsburgh. Eight television companies paid $100,000 for radio and television rights to the sensational battle held at Forbes field.

In taking the championship, Walcott climaxed five attempts to win. Four previous times he lost—twice to Joe Louis and twice to Charles. In his first loss to Louis, he floored the Brown Bomber twice, but lost the decision when two judges voted against him and the referee voted for him.

The second time out, however, Louis flattened him in 11 rounds and retired.

Walcott lost two decisions to Charles, one in Comiskey Park, Chicago, to give Charles the title, and the second in Detroit when he made the champion look bad.

his office. Just a little more than a month ago, someone exploded a bomb in his front yard while he was out of the city to attend the funeral of his father in Baltimore.

At that time, only his two children were at home. Dr. Julian recently commented that it was costing him $11,000 a year to pay for private protection for his home 24 hours a day because apparently law enforcement officials were not able or were not doing the job.

Dr. Julian, 51, was named "Chicagoan of the year" for 1950 for his work in finding medical aids for arthritis, rheumatic fever, and other ailments.

The Union League club in Chicago dates back to 1865. According to the Encyclopedia Americana, it is an offshoot of the old Union League of America, organized by Negroes and whites during the Civil War.

In the north, the old League soon died out, and surviving clubs became private social groups. In the south during post-Civil War days, it continued to function as a political machine to control Negro votes.

Currently, Union League clubs have been considered strongholds of wealthy conservatism, far from its original principles when they were interracial.
