Girl Makes Perfect Score
LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (ANP) — Miss Irene Coppedge, 21-year-old air force recruit, has the distinction of being the first female ever to make a perfect score on the Armed Forces qualification test.
Miss Coppedge, who also passed the physical examination with a high rating, is one of a group of women who enlisted in the service and is now enroute to Lack-land Air Force Base in Texas for eight weeks of basic training. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Samuel Coppedge and a graduate of Central High school.
She expects to take up some specialized work in the service, preferably something connected with mathematics, and hopes to complete a college course while in service.

THE CHRISTIAN'S USE OF MONEY AND GOODS

Scripture . . . Matthew 25:14-30; Acts: 2:43-47; 19:23-41. Memory selection . . . Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye so unto them; for this is the law and the prophets.

Present Day Application
By Frederick D. Jordan,
Los Angeles, California.
As an instrument in our economic system, money has a highly useful part to play. If we accept the fundamental ideas set forth in the teachings of Jesus, certain facts about our own expenditures and standards of living stand out. First of all we must set aside our "tithe" of offering for the Church and Christian social work. Our preaching about "loving our neighbor" is meaningless and hypocritical unless we remember the underprivileged. It is wrong to spend money wastefully or ostentatiously, to use money for luxuries that debase, to domineer over others, or to obtain the disintegrative thrills of speculation and gambling. The love for prestige and wealth is a passion unbecoming a Christian. Used rightfully money is a blessing, not only providing creature comforts for us but happiness for others, and an effective instrument for the cultivation of the higher life.

Business Men Open Office

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Mr. Horace Sudduth, president of the National Negro Business League, Incorporated, has announced the official opening of permanent national headquarters for the league in Washington, D. C.
According to Mr. Sudduth, an Ohio business man and owner of the popular Manse hotel in Cincinnati, "the establishment of permanent national headquarters for the league, marks the inauguration of a broader program of education and service to business men and women and the public at large." It is the first permanent national headquarters established by the league since its organization in 1900.
Temporary headquarters have been set up at 1229 You street N.W. Washington, D. C., with Arthur Waller acting as Convention Secretary and aiding in setting up the national office; and Mrs. Jeanetta Welch Brown acting as director of Public Relations and aiding with the national program. Permanent headquarters will be selected at the 51st annual convention of the league which will be

FACE OR HEART—WHICH?
1. It is hard to believe that a man could think himself smart who looks only on the face and not upon the heart.
2. But there are folks who are dumb and some highly educated who act as if only a certain color of skin and high character are mated.
3. They don't seem to sense that out of one blood, God created all men to dwell upon the face of the earth, and that He alone would be the judge of their real worth.
4. He also gave notice that He would set the bounds of their habitation, and certainly He included no space for hate and segregation.
5. He threw into space the heavens and outspread the seas and made no exception between Races, that one should bow to another upon its knees.
6. God's design for all men of every birth, was that His will be done in earth as it is in heaven, and mankind be the crown of His creation.
7. But here we are today in this unfriendly world, with the majority of men striving frantically for fame and fortune to embrace . . . looking not at the heart of man, but upon his face.
8. Thus nations are rising against nations since outward appearances have been the main attraction . . . and the heart being so miserably neglected, is the cause of all this distraction.
9. But this should not seem strange, it has gone long without a change—it has always happened this way; the old order of "Racial distinctions versus Reason," seems to have come to stay.
10. The spread of this dreaded disease is stench in the nostrils of an unbiased, impartial and forgiving God; love He delights to impart—ever proving to mankind that He looks not upon the outward appearance, but upon the heart.
11. This dangerous fog of hate and deception has always left man afflicted with its terrible infec-

Illinois U Awards 1st Ph.D. to Negro In Accounting

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (ANP). Among the thousands of persons awarded degrees recently at the University of Illinois was William L. Campfield, son of Mrs. I. K. Campfield of Tuskegee, Ala.
Campfield became the first Negro to win Ph.D. in accountancy from the University of Illinois. His degree-winning thesis was titled, "An Inquiry into the Nature Implications to the Public Accounting Profession."
Dr. Campfield was born and reared in Tuskegee. The 39-year-old accounting expert earned a B.C.S. degree from New York university in 1933, and an M.B.S. from the University of Minnesota in 1939. Two years later he qualified for a CPA (certified public accountant) certificate from the state of North Carolina.
He began study for his doctorate at the University of Illinois in 1949. He is a member of Beta Alpha Psi, the American Institute of Accountants, and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.
Dr. Campfield now lives in California where he has held a number of important positions with private firms as well as the federal government in accounting.
