Louis Beats Brion In Ten Rounds

SAN FRANCISCO. (ANP).—Joe Louis, the once highly feared brown bomber, is having his troubles.

Fresh from a second 10-round decision over Cesar Brion, the rugged Argentine fighter, Louis expressed keen disappointment over that newly-crowned champion Jersey Joe Walcott and de-throned champion Ezzard have agreed to postpone their rematch fight until next year.

The former champion said he had not given up hope of regaining the crown. He added:

"As long as Walcott or Charles has it, we still have hope."

The 12,000 persons who saw last week's fight between Louis and Brion gave the two a fine hand after the slugfest.

From the opening bell to the seventh, the tough Argentinian carried the fight to Louis, and was ahead on points for five rounds. But from the seventh on it was Louis all the way.

In the seventh Louis battered Brion with lefts and rights to the head, and drove in body blows that had Brion groggy. He pounded him silly in the last three rounds, but was unable to bring across a knockout punch.

At the end of the fight, Brion's face was cut and he was bleeding on the side of each eye.

Louis won by a unanimous decision. It was his seventh win in his comeback campaign since he lost to Charles.

Dr. Bunche is being boomed as a successor to Adm. Alan G. Kirk, who is retiring from the post. The suggestion of Dr. Bunche's name was made by the Detroit News.

Said Sen. Moody, "The immediate reaction was that, be-
