THE CHRISTIAN'S RESPONSIBILITY IN PUBLIC LIFE

Scripture: Matthew 5:12-16; 13:33; Acts 5:25-29; 1 Peter 3:13-18
Memory Selection: We ought to obey God rather than men. Acts 5:29.

PRESENT DAY APPLICATION

By Frederick D. Jordan
Los Angeles, Calif.

The Christian should make himself felt in the community. Much wickedness in high places, many unjust laws, etc., can be directly traced to the Christians of the community, who refuse to take part in public life. The Christian should seek to preserve the best in government, he should be as a light in calling attention to Christian ideals in government. The Christian should be like leaven in the community, maintaining ideals, hopes, motives, spirit, love, and faith as citizens of the heavenly realm. And Christians must do this, not only to save their own souls, but to leaven, to permeate the whole of society with the purpose and spirit of Christ. War, economic, pressure and political intrigue are wreaking havoc in the world today. It is the business of Christians to see that our great institutions of democracy, freedom, and truth are not swept away.

S. Alexander In England

LONDON — (ANP) — Among the unusually large number of prominent Negroes in England for the Ecumenical conference this month is Mrs. Sadie Alexander, the well known attorney of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Alexander is a delegate to the conference, and is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Layton, colored Americans who have lived in London so long they are accepted as being English.

The Laytons own a beautiful residence in one of the exclusive sections of London where they live with their daughter, Aletia.

Physicians Prepare For Medical Convention

Leading physicians throughout the country are preparing to go to Philadelphia Aug. 20-24 for the 56th annual convention of the National Medical association. In the background, preparing for what probably will be one of the greatest meetings in NMA history are the above leaders of the organization.

chairman of the board of trustees; Joseph G. Gathings, (top center), Washington, D. C., president-elect. He will be inaugurated into office as president during this session.

J. T. Aldrich (top right), St. Louis, speaker, house of delegates; H. H. Walker, (bottom left), Nashville, Tenn., president. Dr. Walker will preside over the meetings. He has worked constantly to prepare for the Philadelphia meeting. John T. Givens, (bottom right), Norfolk, Va., general secretary.—(ANP)

Layton has been a prime favorite with musical audiences in London for many years.

The Laytons visited the United States two years ago and greeted many old friends at receptions held for them in New York, Philadelphia and other eastern points.
