Christian Relations Among Races
 Scripture—John 4:4-14; Acts 10:25-28; Colossians 3:11.

Memory Selection . . . Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. Acts 10: 34, 35.

PRESENT DAY APPLICATION
 By Frederick D. Jordan
 Los Angeles, Calif.

Our denomination is an active participant in the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America, as well as in other outstanding inter-racial and intercultural movements. Led by Dr. L. L. Berry we have had membership for years in the Foreign Missions Conference and the Home Missions Council. Through our Christian Education we have been represented by Dr. S. S. Morris, Dr.
 C. W. Abington, Dr. E. A. Selby and others in the International Council of Religious Education, and through Mrs. Heath in the Council of Church Women. Coming to know people of other races and groups through Christian relationships, we are helped to discover the true worth of all people. The Christian teaching is that we value persons as persons without regard to race. Personal knowledge and experience often serve to break down barriers.

King Stree pier was blown away and many small vessels at anchor either sank or were destroyed. At Port Royal there is nothing left to remind us of her prestine glory.

The damage, distress, and want are so colossal that the officials hardly know what to do. Electricity will not be restored for the next three weeks. All telephone and telegraph posts and wires in every district are down.
 We can get no radio news. 95 Duke Street had water running through it, and people had to take refuge in my classrooms. They are still there. Damage in Kingston and St. Andrew is estimated at sixteen million pounds sterling.

Famine threatens. There is no

Five Champions Lost This Year

NEW YORK—(ANP)—The 1951 sport swan song will carry an illuminating bit of boxing news.

Five champions lost their togas this season, namely: Ray Robinson, Ezzard Charles, Ike Williams, Johnny Bratton and Jake La-Motta.

The influence of colored fighters on world championships was never more fittingly noted than in this listing, for with the exception of LaMotta, the Bronx Bull, all of the dethroned kings were of African ancestry.

In a recent instalment of "True Hall of Famors," Al Moses, sports authority whose articles have appeared in the leading dailies of the nation, predicts that Negro fighters will reign just as long as "fight fixers" are kept out of the picture.

The desire to escape insecurity spurs good Negro boxers to excel in this billion dollar industry just as the lowering of racial bars in baseball will admit hundreds of young Negroes to fat salaries and new life patterns during the next quarter-century.

Close to championship class are a chef with the Burlington dining car service out of Lincoln since 1942.

He is survived by his wife, Edith; two sisters, Mrs. Brevy Lilly Miller of Lincoln and Dr.
 XaCadene Hill Fox of St. Louis, Mo.; two brothers, Pahio and Henry, both of New York City, and a son, Roger L. of Lincoln.

of course Archie Moore, "uncrowned" 175 pound division leader and Clarence Henry, young West Coast heavyweight who is being considered a likely Joe Louis opponent. Gil Turner is of championship timber beyond a doubt while Aaron Wilson, campaigning in Europe, is rated by experts a mittman of class leadership stature.
