

The Voice

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

"Dedicated to the promotion of the cultural, social and spiritual life of a great people."

Melvin L. Shakespeare

Publisher and Editor

Phone 2-4085

Business Address 2225 S Street If No Answer Call 3-7506
 Rubie W. Shakespeare Advertising and Business Manager
 Dorothy Green Office Secretary
 Mrs. Joe Green Circulation Manager

Member of the Associated Negro Press and Nebraska Press Association
 Entered as Second Class Matter June 9, 1947 at 1st Post Office at Lincoln Nebraska under the Act of March 3, 1879.

1 year subscription $2.50 Single copy 10c
 Out-of-State 1 Year Subscription $2.50—Single Copy 10c

EDITORIALS
 The views expressed in these columns necessarily, a reflection of the policy are those of the writer and not of The Voice.—Pub

BETWEEN THE LINES

BY DEAN GORDON B. HANCOCK FOR ANP

General Eisenhower and the Dixiecrats

The political plot is thickening. A few days ago a southern radio commentator was heard to say that General Eisenhower would not be a candidate for the presidency unless the people demanded it.

"Then," said the commentator, "10,000 southerners should bombard the General with letters and pleas to him to lead in the coming elections."

In other words, the needed command of the people would come with the demand of the South. If the South commanded the general, he could regard that as a mandate from the people. There is some curious food for thought in this radio comment. The extent to which the commentator was voicing the sentiments of the pro-Eisenhower segment of our voting population is the extent to which the Negroes should be careful in their coming political allegiance.

I know the Dixiecrats better than I know General Ike; but if he speaks the language of the Dixiecrats he is not the man for the presidency.

It is not too early for the country to ponder this question. The White House is not the place for a Dixiecrat, nor a man who is the favorite of the Dixiecrats, nor for a man who courts their political support.

Some months ago, this writer expressed the fear that General Ike was flirting with the Dixiecrats. Passing events are corroborating the conclusion that General Ike is the Dixiecratic candidate and as such should be rejected. The Dixiecrats are too anti-Negro and too narrow in their sympathies to choose a President of the United States.

The Dixiecrats are bitterly opposed to the full integration of the Negro. If General Ike is their standard bearer, he, too, must be opposed to the Negro's integration. This must be his overt or covert profession of political faith. The elevation of such a man to the presidency would be a political blunder of major magnitude.

Negroes have been step-citizens of this country long enough. The time is at hand for their full integration. Nothing short of this can ease the nation's smitten conscience. Nothing short of this will satisfy the demands of the sacrifices the Negro has made to make this nation what it is.

Negroes may well be afraid of the proposed alliance between the Dixiecrats and the Dixiecratic minded Republicans. No less fearful should they be of the proposed candidacy of General Eisenhower. At heart, the general is a Dixiecrat.

There are many things the South needs, but Gen. Eisenhower for President is not one of them.

Here is the Current Weekly Jingle (No. 9)
 (Entries to be judged using this jingle must be postmarked by midnight, October 18, 1951)

For "Good Luck" with your bread or rolls
EVERY TIME YOU BAKE
 Use Gooch's Best, the proven flour

(You write the last line)

REMEMBER—A NEW contest EVERY Week!

Get Your FREE ENTRY BLANK at your grocers

Visit

The Lancaster County
 Food Fair and Better Home Show

October 16, 17 & 18.

Lincoln Urban League, 2030 T St.

Dr. Josef Stodemire, General Manager.

Weaver's

Tenderized Potato
 Wafers

SEE THEM Demonstrated at the Food Show

Nebraska Favorites

Visit the

GENERAL ELECTRIC DISPLAY

Displayed By

Quinn-Hodgson Tire Service

1918 O

2-3381

GAS-FIRST CHOICE

AT FOOD FAIR

Gas appliances were chosen for the "Lancaster Food Fair & Better Homes Show" being held Oct. 16-17-18 at the Lincoln Urban League. A cooking demonstration will be given by Dr. Stodemire. The Food Fair will feature several modern, fast, efficient gas appliances.

The GAS Company